ATTACK ON PILOT

Results In Serious
Charge

Toronto, Sept. 17.

Following the tragic death of Len Koenecke, outlander for the Brooklyn Dodgers, who was killed in a grim fight waged in the darkness in an aeroplane flying over the suburbs of Toronto,
William Mulqueeny, the pilot, and Irwin Davis, professional parachutist,
the other man in the plane,
have been charged with manslaughter.

Mulqueeny testified that Koenecke became restless during the flight and started grabbing the controls.
Davis and Koenecke then rolled about in a desperate struggle, and the baseballer tossed Davis aside and attacked Mulqueeny.

"Holding the controls in one hand," said the pilot, "I picked up the first extinguisher and hit him two or three times. He kept fighting, so I hit him again. He finally collapsed in a heap."

It is pointed out that air pilots, unlike air captains, are not legally empowered to use violence in order to subdue an unruly passenger.

Earlier messages indicated that Koenecke had been drinking heavily before he entered the plane, which he hired for a trip.—

THE FINANCES OF INDIA

Special Enquiry
Arranged

London, Sept. 17.

The India Office announces that the financial enquiry which is necessary before steps can be taken to introduce Provincial Autonomy under the new Government of India Act will be carried out by Sir Otto Niemeyer, of the Bank of England, Director of the Bank of International Settlements and former Controller of Finance
at the Treasury.

The need for the enquiry arises from the fact that although the main outlines of the system of federal finance have been established in the Act, it provides that the allocation of certain resources between the Central and Provincial Governments in India shall be settled by an Order-in-Council
after His Majesty's Government has been furnished with an independent review of the financial position of the provinces and the centre, and with technical advice on the financial questions involved.—

BYE-ELECTION IN LANCASHIRE

London, Sept. 17.

A bye-election in the Farnworth division of Lancashire will be necessitated by the death to-day of the Conservative member, Mr.
James Stones aged 67. Mr. Stones, who was the son of a coalminer, gained the seat from Labour at the last General Election by 22,460 votes to 19,153, a majority of 2,907.

Mr. Stones was a retired railway clerk and has been engaged in local government work for many years having been chairman of the Farnworth Urban District Council from 1915 to 1919. At the 1929 election, Labour had a majority of 2,606 in a three-cornered fight.—

WIND SUBSIDING

But Terrible Havoc
Wrought

London, Sept. 17.

Districts throughout the country tell the same story of havoc due to the storm, the severity of which is indicated by the fact that eight towns are telephonically isolated, and 19,000 lines throughout the country are out of action.

There is a genuine war atmosphere in the area of the Army's manoeuvre camps, which have a blown and dragged appearance.
Staff headquarters near Bransbury suggests that bomb has been dropped in the vicinity.

The wind is subsiding now, however, and help is near to the stricken vessels which have been calling for so long for help.

A destroyer has found the badly battered Brampton Manor in the Channel and a naval tug is trying to tow her home.

The Mary Kingsley, with three of her crew badly hurt, is limping towards Falmouth.—

SERIOUS LOSSES

London, Sept. 17.

Four lives have been lost, two by drowning at sea and two by injury from falling objects, during the gale which has been raging over the Channel and Southern England since the early hours, but which this evening was gradually abating.

There has been a considerable number of persons injured through the collapse of roofs and boardings. Fallen trees have caused several accidents and interrupted both road and rail transport services. The wireless aerial masts at Heston aerodrome were destroyed.

In eight towns, telephone communication has been cut off completely, and altogether 19,000 lines are out of order throughout the country, including 720 trunk lines. Much damage has been done to property.

One of the dead is the Captain of the 1,735-ton cargo vessel
Brompton Manor, who was washed overboard. The ship had to be towed into Portsmouth.

The s.s. Mary Kingsley, which got into difficulties off the Scilly Isles during the night, has been able to make for Falmouth.

The Barry lifeboat rescued the crew of the French 117-ton schooner Goeland, which was unable to make Swansea owing to the gale. The crew were taken off by lifeboat just before the schooner drifted on to the rocks.

According to a Marseilles message, the British 2,379-ton steamer
Cracksot was in distress 50 miles west of Ushant.—

SINO-JAPANESE RELATIONS

"Better Feelings"

London, Sept. 17.

"There have been signs that the fierce estrangement between Japan and China is giving way to a better feeling, and we should see in the friendship of these two countries, not a menace to the West, but benefit to the whole world," declares the "Morning Post" in a leading article dealing with the Leith-Ross Mission to China.

"There is no sense in quarrelling with the facts of the situation," remarks the journal, "and one of the facts now established in the Far Eastern situation is that Manchuria is no longer a political part of China. If China were to freely recognise the status of Manchukuo, it would be a long step towards stability. It would not only improve matters between China and Japan but would clear the way to a better understanding between these two nations and the Western world."—

Are you over 40?

Difficult breathing, headaches, dizziness, sleeplessness, lack of appetite and high blood pressure are some of the dreaded symptoms of advancing age. Increasing the amount of minerals in the body is, next to the leading of a regular life, the most logical way to restore undisturbed health.

You can do this easily with Kalzana tablets, because here you have a mineral food that builds up better health in an entirely natural manner.

A well-known physician describing his experience of Kalzana Tablets with 6 patients, writes:

"Kalzana had a very favourable influence. The vitality of the patients improved remarkably, the shortness of breath disappeared and the dizziness, headache, lack of appetite and sleeplessness were conquered."

SOCIAL CREDIT FEARS

Savings Payments Stopped

(Special Air Mail Service)

London, Sept. 3.
The Premier of Alberta, Mr. R. G. Reid, announced this afternoon the temporary suspension of payments of Alberta savings certificates. Withdrawals had become so heavy, he stated, that the method of raising sufficient funds to meet payments must be decided, and this was the proper duty of the new Government.

The text of the Government's statement is as follows:—

Requests for payment of savings certificates have reached such proportions that they can only be met by measures involving questions of policy which must be determined by the new Government. The Government has already met abnormal demands for payment of certificates, and has on hand additional securities which could ordinarily be disposed of to take care of the present demands, but which are not now readily marketable.

The Government therefore is notifying the public that the presentation of demands for payment should be withheld until the new Government has time to make the arrangements necessary to deal with the situation. At the same time the Government wishes to assure holders of certificates and holders of Debentures of certificates that the position of the Province is sound, and there should be no undue apprehension about the worth of Alberta securities. Interest payments on Debentures and certificates will be met as usual.

Mr. Aberhart, whose Social Credit Party gained a sweeping victory in the recent elections, has issued a statement from Calgary reiterating the Government's assurances.

About $11,000,000 are invested in savings certificates, of which 5,000,000 are demand certificates. The day after the election 250,000 were withdrawn, while previously 800,000 had been cashed by holders. The Government have refused to state the amount covered by applications for withdrawals since Friday.

Mr. Aberhart announces that he has received a telegram from Major Douglas, the originator of the social credit theory, which read:—"There will be others, but only one first." He adds that he wired back to Albert to start putting the social dividend plan into effect.

Mr. Aberhart, telephoning to the Lieutenant-Governor of Alberta, stated that a caucus of newly elected members would be held in Calgary on Wednesday. He hopes that the meeting will be over on Wednesday evening, when he will leave immediately for Edmonton to lay his plans before the Lieutenant-Governor. He plans to have the view Cabinet ready to be sworn in on September 3.

Since the election the Premier-designate has repeated his assurances that owners of money property have nothing to fear. He specifically states that there is no intention of confiscating or otherwise injuring holdings of bonds or insurance policies. With complete assurance he hopes to persuade the chartered banks to lend their branch offices as clearing houses for the Social Credit cheques.

Social Credit banking would be a widespread organization, for every adult would have an account in which a monthly social dividend, tentatively set at $25, would be credited. All salaries would also be paid only in credit, according to the Aberhart plan.

From this it can be seen that legal currency would almost disappear from ordinary commercial transactions, every purchase being made by the buyer simply writing a cheque on his account at the State credit house. Mr. Aberhart is convinced that he can persuade the banks to cooperate with him, but, if not, he says he will set up his own system of a State clearing house with branches in every hamlet.

THE GROCER'S BILL

Details of the $5-a-month-for-all scheme, with which the Social Credit Party in Alberta, Canada, was swept into power, are now available.

Under it, says Reuter, every adult will take his passbook month by month to the Government clearing house to be credited with 25 dollars, with which he can pay his grocer, butcher, landlord, etc. This credit will however, be non-negotiable, and the grocer will have

N-W. FRONTIER FIGHTING

Hostile Clansmen Dispersed

(Special Air Mail Service)

London, Sept. 3.
More than 60 tribesmen have been killed and 46 wounded in an action between disaffected clansmen and British and Indian forces operating in that wild and mountainous region of the North-West Frontier which is intersected by the Gandab Valley. The Indian Army casualties recorded are five killed and 21 wounded, the latter including Lieutenant A. C. S. Moore, 5th/12th Frontier Force Regiment (Queen Victoria's Own Corps of Guides).

The strength of the tribal lashkar has now greatly decreased, but its leaders are attempting to raise reinforcements in the Upper Mohmand country. The Isa Khel on the other hand, are suing for peace. Meanwhile internecine strife has broken out in Dir State. This development may further complicate a situation which is causing the authorities some anxiety, and may even lead to a review of the administrative policy of the Frontier area involved.

The latest news from the Gandab Valley zone indicates that all is now quiet. The Peshawar and Nowshera columns, known as the Mohmand Force, have advanced to Ghalanai, after enabling repairs to be carried out on a section of the road between Pir Kala and Dand which was damaged by the hostile tribesmen. The columns reached Ghalanai without casualties after only slight opposition. The advance of the troops and the progressive clearing of the road were greatly assisted by the action of the Royal Air Force against the lashkar, whose principal elements now consist of Sufis. The lashkar has been dispersed from the road and its vicinity after attacks by ground troops in association with the Royal Air Force, which also attacked bases in the adjoining hostile zones.

FRONTIER MALCONTENTS

The tribal forces engaged in the rising included clansmen of the Isa Khel and Burhan Khel, with some Upper Mohmands and Sufis. They had been incited by badmash leaders, including Chinnai, the Fakir of Alingar, and Badshah Gul and his father, the Haji of Turangzai.

Badshah Gul, a notorious malcontent of the border accompanied by some Upper Mohmands, descended into Lower Mohmand territory and held jirgas with the Isa Khel and Burhan Khel. After these tribal meetings, which were held in sequestered villages, a small force among the mountains, a small force appeared in the Gandab Valley on August 15 and harassed the road workers. The lashkar was dispersed, but it later reassembled with a force of 2,000 strong, including a contingent from Upper Mohmand territory operating under the Fakir of Alingar. To deal with this serious development Indian troops from Peshawar and Nowshera went into action in collaboration with the R.A.F.

to deposit it with the clearing house and receive new credit to pay his own debts, thus maintaining a constant circulation of credit.

MAJOR DOUGLAS'S REPLY

In reply to an invitation to assist the new Government, Major C. H. Douglas, leader of the Social Credit movement, states that he could leave England in ten days or a fortnight, but would not give a definite reply until after to-day's meeting of the victorious party.

Meantime, Mr. William Aberhart, the Premier-elect, hopes to persuade at least one of the chartered banks to lend its branch offices in Alberta as clearing houses for his credit dividend, but if unsuccessful he will establish his own clearing houses.

Mr. Aberhart told the "Daily Mirror" last night over the transatlantic telephone:—

"I feel that the sooner Major Douglas is over here and on the job the better.

"He has had a long uphill struggle to get his social credit scheme recognised, and I hope that we will be able to give him a start."

"THERE IS NO PANIC"

When asked how long it would be before he got his scheme working, Mr. Aberhart replied:

"I have said that I shall want fifteen to eighteen months, but I hope it will not be so long.

"There is wonderful support for us here. The country is quiet. There is no panic. These stories about people drawing their money out of the banks are not true.

"I have had messages of congratulation from all over the world. The world is watching us.

"It's going to mean a lot of work, but we believe Alberta will show the world."

COMMITTED FOR TRIAL

Lord de Clifford

(Special Air Mail Service)

London, Sept. 3.
Lord de Clifford, who, at Kingston (Surrey) yesterday, was committed for trial on charges arising out of a car crash on the Kingston-by-pass road on August 15, may be tried by his peers at the House of Lords.

He was named, before the jury Bench, of "feloniously killing and slaying Douglas George Hopkins, of Moss Hall Grove, Finchley, by driving a motor-car recklessly," of driving in a manner dangerous to the public, and of driving without due care and attention.

He pleaded not guilty and reserved his defence, and the magistrates announced that he would be committed for trial "at the Central Criminal Court or wherever the trial may be held."

Mr. F. Clayton, who appeared for the Director of Public Prosecutions, immediately interposed with the remark "The House of Lords. I should think."

It is understood that if the Director of Public Prosecutions decides to proceed on the manslaughter charge Lord de Clifford will be tried by his peers at the House of Lords. If it is decided to take only the lesser charges, then he will be tried at the Central Criminal Court.

Lord de Clifford was described as a director, aged 38, of the Southborough Arms Hotel, Hook, Surrey, and evidence was given at the last hearing that a coroner's jury at Kingston had returned a verdict of wilful negligence against him and that the Coroner had committed him for trial on the charge of manslaughter. The other charges were preferred yesterday.

Opening the case for the prosecution, Mr. Clayton said that the evidence was that at the time of the collision Lord de Clifford's car was on the wrong side of the road. To a police officer he said words to the effect that he was misled by the oncoming car, that he saw the oncoming car on its wrong side of the road and tried to get on his wrong side of the road to avoid it. Mr. Clayton said that he did not think that could be so. The evidence of the prosecution was that the oncoming car was on its correct side of the road all the time and, in the opinion of a police officer who saw it, was being driven properly under control at forty-five miles an hour.

FLASH OF LIGHT AND CRASH

Evidence was given by Mr. E. C. Hopkins, of Moss Hall Grove, Finchley, that his son, who was 23, was an expert driver and that his car was in perfect condition.

Miss Sheila Hopkins, the dead man's sister, stated that with Miss Reynolds she was in the car, all three sitting in the front seats. There was plenty of room. They were not going very quickly just before the collision, and suddenly there was a flash of light and a crash.

"My friend said, 'Douglas is hurt,'" she said. "I got out of the door and my friend jumped over the back. My brother had collapsed over the wheel. Afterwards I saw Lord de Clifford standing near our car. I said, 'What on earth is your car doing over our side of the road?' He said, 'We can't go into this now.'"

Miss Betty, Rosemary Reynolds, of Temple Fortune Lane, Golders Green, said that her impression was that Mr. Hopkins was driving quite normally, on his proper side at about forty miles an hour. "We were discussing a book at the time and suddenly two enormous headlights seemed to appear and before I knew what had happened there was a crash."

Police Constable Wright stated that he found Lord de Clifford's car in the middle of the road, and Mr. Hopkins's car was on the near side, close to the kerb, Lord de Clifford made the following statement to him:—"I was going about forty miles per hour when, coming towards me, I saw a car which was driving along at a tremendous speed, and I thought the car was out of control. I went over to my off side to avoid him and then crossed to my near side and we collided."

The constable added that he saw Mr. Hopkins's car before the collision, about half a mile away from the scene of the accident. It was then being driven on its own side of the road and perfectly under control. He guessed the speed as between 45 and 50 m.p.h.

Sergeant Thomrason said that Mr. Hopkins's car came to rest 85 feet from the point of impact, well on its near side. He traced the tyre tracks of Lord de Clifford's car, and from fifteen yards before the point of impact it was three feet over the crown of the road on the near side.

When the case for the prosecution was concluded, Lord de Clifford stated that he did not wish to say anything at that stage, and after he had been committed for trial continuous bail was allowed.

Early Autumn Flavour

Now that summer's heat is on the wane and nights are cooler it's safe to serve a dinner that's a bit more substantial and "heartier" than has been suitable in the immediate past. Such a dinner is suggested below—introduced with a piquant soup and finished with a satisfying dessert.

CREAM OF GREEN PEA SOUP

Boil fresh green peas in salted water and pass through a fine sieve. Put this puree in a saucepan with the water in which the peas were boiled, and at the moment before serving add to it the yellows of eggs, fresh cream and fresh butter. Serve with croutons.

ROAST DUCK, ORANGE SAUCE

1 apple cut in quarters
1 medium size duck
1 onion, sliced
1 cup celery, chopped
1 carrot sliced
2 cups stock or bouillon
2 tsp. pepper
1 tsp. salt
2 tsp. flour
Juice 1 orange
1 orange, sliced
Rind of three oranges
2 tsp. lemon juice
1 tbsp. currant jelly

Place the carrot, onion and celery in the bottom of a roaster. On the top of these vegetables place the duck, stuffed with the apple and sprinkled with salt and pepper. Add the stock or bouillon. Cover and cook for about 20 minutes to the pound of duck. For the first 20 minutes have the temperature of the oven high, reduce the heat to moderate until the duck is tender.

Remove the duck from the roaster and strain the gray into a saucepan. Skim off the fat and add the orange and lemon juices and the currant jelly. Bring to a boil and thicken with the flour moistened with cold water. Cut the rind of the orange and lemon into small pieces. Cover with water, about 1 cup, and cook 5 minutes. Strain and add this liquid to the sauce. Cook the sauce for a few minutes longer. Place the duck on a platter and garnish with orange slices.

PRUNE SALAD

Stuff halved cooked prunes with cream cheese which has been blended with 1 tablespoon of minced candied ginger. Serve with French dressing on lettuce nests.

GEMS

2 tsp. sugar
4 tsp. melted butter
3 eggs
1 cup milk
2 cups flour
1 heaping tsp. baking powder
Pinch salt

Put sugar and melted butter together, then add eggs and milk. Put salt and baking powder in flour and make a batter. Bake in greased gem pans for 15 minutes in a hot oven.

AMBER PIE

Bake a pie shell. Make following filling:

1 pint gingerale
1 cup brown sugar
1 cup flour
1 tsp. salt
3 beaten egg yolks
2 tsp. butter

Heat the gingerale to scalding in a double boiler. Blend the sugar, flour and salt and add to the hot liquid, beating until very smooth. Cook 10 minutes, add a portion of the hot mixture to the beaten egg yolks, well, then return to the double boiler and cook, stirring for 3 minutes. Remove from the heat, add the butter and cool slightly. Pour into a baked pie shell and top with the meringue and brown lightly in a slow oven.

There are so many types of pies, so varied an assortment of fillings that if your family happen to be pie lovers you may introduce a new version of their favourite dessert many times without repetition.

PRUNE-BANANA PIE

2 cups cooked prunes
2 cups sliced bananas
2/3 cup strained honey
1/4 cup butter
1/4 tsp. lemon extract
Baked 9-inch pastry shell
3 egg whites
6 tbsps. granulated sugar
1/4 tsp. lemon extract

Put the prunes and cut into small pieces. Cream the honey and butter until thick and smooth; add the prunes, bananas, extract, and mix well. Pour into the baked pastry shell, cover with meringue and bake in a moderate oven for 15 minutes. For the meringue beat the egg whites stiff and add the sugar, a small portion at a time, beating well after each addition. Add the extract and blend thoroughly.

LEMON MERINGUE PIE

Prepare a baked pastry shell for the filling:

1 1/4 cups sugar
4 tbsps. cornstarch
5 tbsps. flour
1/4 cup white corn syrup
1 1/4 cups boiling water
2 tsp. butter
4 egg yolks
2 grated lemon rinds
6 tbsps. lemon juice

Mix the sugar, cornstarch and flour together, add to this the corn syrup and then the boiling water and stir. Cook in an enameled kettle until thick over a very low flame or in a double boiler. Then add the butter, beaten egg yolks, the rind and juice of the lemon and cook again for 5 minutes or until thick. Set aside to cool. When cool pour into the baked pie shell. Top with a meringue made by beating 4 egg whites stiff, then adding 2 tablespoons of sugar. Brown the meringue.

FRUIT CREAMS

Here is the basic recipe for two sorts of these creams, a rich one (which is better) and a cheaper one. Strawberries and raspberries each make delicious creams the first way. For the rich cream, sieve half a pint of fruit puree. (The puree can be of raw or cooked fruit, and must first be sweetened.) Add half a pint of half-whipped cream and then half an ounce of gelatine dissolved in half a gill of water or milk. Stir gently on ice, or in cold salt and water, until the mixture just begins to set, then mould. For the cheaper cream, proceed in exactly the same way, but use three gills of the fruit puree, one gill of half-whipped cream, and half an ounce of gelatine dissolved in half a gill of water.

NOTE.—All these dishes should be set as cold as possible, on ice or in a refrigerator, or even on ice in a refrigerator. If the weather is very hot and you have no refrigerator, extra gelatine should be added.

TUNA RICE SALAD

1 seven-ounce can tuna
1 cup diced celery
1 cup cold cooked rice
2 medium tomatoes, diced
3 tablespoons tomato catsup
1 cup salad dressing
Crisp chicory

Combine the ingredients in the order given, adding salt, pepper and paprika to season. Toss lightly together and serve on the thoroughly washed, chilled chicory.

Curious

Dear I.P.—Curious that many girls who pretend to have no interest whatever in men or marriage only take off one glove when in public conveyances—the right. If they can show an engagement ring, the left is immediately removed. (I have noticed that also—I.P.)

Tomato Rarebit

Melt

1 tablespoon butter in a saucepan. In it cook until soft
1 stalk of celery finely cut
1 chopped onion and
1 minced green pepper. Add the contents of
1 can tomato soup, undiluted, and cook slowly for a few minutes. Then add
1 cup grated or crumbled cheese and stir constantly over a low flame until cheese has melted. Serve very hot on buttered toast.

EGGS WITH PIQUANT SAUCE

Melt in a sauce pan over the fire

1 tablespoon butter. Blend with it
1 1/2 tablespoons flour. Add
1 large cup hot water. Cook until thick. Add
1 finely chopped green pepper
1 teaspoon sliced pickled onion
1 teaspoon capers
1 fine cut pickle

Sprig of parsley minced and the juice of 1/2 lemon. Season with Salt. Have ready as many hard cooked eggs as required. Cut them in quarters and turn the sauce over them.

TUNA FISH

Melt in a saucepan
1 tablespoon butter. Add
2 chopped onions and
1 minced green pepper and cook until soft. Add the contents of 1 can celery soup, undiluted
1 small can tuna fish and about
2 ounces grated cheese. Cook until the cheese has melted and serve on buttered toast garnished with slices of Stuffed olives.

Delicious Fish Treats

SALMON STEAK WITH TOMATO SAUCE

1 tablespoon prepared mustard
2 pounds salmon steak
1 egg
Crushed cereal flakes
Olive oil
Tomato catsup

Spread mustard over the steak. Allow to stand for ten minutes. Dip in beaten egg and crushed cereal flakes. Fry in olive oil until golden brown. Serve with tomato catsup which has been heated.

BAKED FILLET OF SOLE

2 fillets of sole for each serving
1 cup shrimps
Make a thick sauce of:
2 tablespoons olive oil
1/2 cup flour
1 cup milk
Salt to season
1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce

Add the cleaned shrimps to the sauce and chill. Spread on fillet of sole and roll up. Bake rolls in a 400 degrees oven for 15 minutes. Serve with lemon butter sauce.

CREOLE TUNA

2 tablespoons oil from tuna
1 tablespoon flour
1 cup tomato catsup
Salt and paprika
2 cups cooked macaroni
1 seven-ounce can tuna, flaked
1/3 cup buttered bread crumbs
8-ozs cheese

Combine the tuna oil and flour and stir in the tomato catsup. Add salt and paprika to taste and cook together until slightly thickened. Put a layer of macaroni in a buttered baking dish, then a layer of tuna, next sauce, and continue until all ingredients are used. Sprinkle top with grated cheese and buttered bread crumbs and bake in a moderate (350 degree) oven for 20 minutes.

BREAKFAST MUFFINS

To

2 eggs, well beaten, add
1 cup milk
2 cups flour
2 teaspoons baking powder
salt. Beat well and add 2 tablespoons melted butter. Pour muffin tins about half full and bake in moderate oven. (These are especially good with a fluffy omelet and strawberry jam.)

CINNAMON COFFEE CAKE

5 ft together
2 cups flour
2 teaspoons baking powder
Salt
1 teaspoon cinnamon
1 cup sugar. Mix in well
1 large tablespoon shortening. Add enough milk to make a soft dough. Smooth out in a baking pan, reserving that which sticks to the sides and bottom of the mixing bowl. To this add
1/2 cup sugar
1 teaspoon cinnamon. Mix until crumbly, adding more sugar if necessary. Sprinkle this on top of the cake.

Broken nut-meats sprinkled over the top makes this a little extra special, or raisins may be mixed into the dough. The following recipe, some call "Depression Cake," but as we didn't like the name "Depression," we call it "Oh, So Good." It is made without eggs or milk and very economical.

OH SO GOOD CAKE

Mix together
1 cup shortening
1 cup sugar
1 1/2 cups water
2 squares chocolate or 6 tablespoons cocoa
1 teaspoon cinnamon
1/2 cup raisins. Stir over fire until it boils. Let cool and add
2 cups flour
2 teaspoons baking powder
salt

vanilla. Bake in a shallow loaf pan in a moderate oven 350 F. It needs no frosting.

Cold Meat Mousses

These are lighter than the creams, and should not therefore be turned out. Here is a recipe for Ham Mousse. Pound up half a pound of lean cooked minced ham with half a pint of espagnole or tomato sauce. Pass through a fine sieve. Dissolve half an ounce of gelatine in a little stock and add to it the ham puree, a gill of aspic jelly whisked until frothy, and a gill and a half of semi-whipped cream. Fold in the stiffly-beaten white of an egg, and colour if you like with a few drops of carmine. Pour into prepared soufflé dish and put in the cold until set.

If you put this mixture into small cases instead of one large one, they are called mousselines. But note that while these little ones can be turned out, the large one must be left in its case. You could add more gelatine if you wanted to turn it out, but it would then lose some of its lightness.

He Asked For It

A woman was fined for knocking her husband senseless during an argument. One theory is that he had just told the thing was as plain as the nose on her face.

Help Out

"Walter, these are very small oysters."
"Yes, sir."
"And they don't appear to be very fresh."
"Then it's lucky they're small, isn't it, sir?"

What is the USE of ADVERTISING

IF

the claims made are proved a fallacy? Would you buy that article a second time? While advertising is a powerful force in educating as to the uses, merits or money saving advantages of a product, the people are the judges when they make their first purchase. "Delivering the goods" is what they demand, and the scrap heap of failures is piled with goods that could not stand the test of public judgment. 'ASPRO' messages are carefully planned to prove what 'ASPRO' can do to alleviate pain and suffering, and the reason of its success throughout the civilised world is simple, because it fulfils all claims made for it. Its purity is its safety, and its quick action the healing service humanity appreciates. 'ASPRO' conforms to the standard of purity laid down by the British Pharmacopoeia (the guiding authority of the Medical Profession), and the 15 uses enumerated below make it an invaluable quick first-aid emergency in every home.

'ASPRO' GIVES QUICK AND SAFE RESULTS

Great Relief After 14 Years' Suffering

2 Thomas St., Lewisham, N.S.W.
28/2/33.
Dear Sirs,
I have been suffering from Rheumatism and Rheumatoid Arthritis for 12 to 14 years. I have taken a course of your 'ASPRO' Tablets—three after each meal—and often when in pain, have taken an extra dose before going to bed. I obtained very great relief from this treatment; in fact, I do not know how I could have continued to move about without 'ASPRO'. The pain has gradually improved, and now I find I need to take 'ASPRO' only occasionally. I can confidently recommend 'ASPRO' to all sufferers from rheumatism. (Sgd.) A. H. BURNS.

LAND ADMINISTRATION

(Special to the "Hong Kong Daily

Press" (Copyright).]

Nanking, Sept. 11.

The National Land Administrative Conference, convened under the auspices of the Ministry of Interior, will open to-morrow and will be in session until the 16th inst.

Problems of land division, taxation, administration and utilization in China are among the most important economic questions awaiting solutions which the conference will attempt to seek in its five-day deliberations.

The convention will be represented by 21 provinces and five municipalities. Mr. Wang Chin-wei,

President of the Executive Yuan, will be the principal speaker at tomorrow morning's inauguration ceremony. More than 20 major proposals will be thoroughly discussed during the five-day convention.

These proposals are divided into four categories, namely:

(1) Organization, functions and expenditures of land administration organs and the training for land administration workers.

(2) Land surveying and registration.

(3) Fixation of land values and imposition of land tax.

(4) Utilization of land and regulations for government purchase of private land.

LITTLE MISS MARKER

Revealing the softer side of a lot of otherwise hard Broadway characters, Damon Runyon's popular magazine story, "Little Miss Marker" is showing at the Oriental Theatre on Friday and Saturday, with Shirley Temple in the leading role.

Adolphe Menjou, Dorothy Dell, and Charles Bickford have the principal roles, while the supporting cast includes Lynne Overman and Jack Sheehan, Broadway stage stars and Frank McGlynn, Sr., Sam Hardy, Tammany Young, Warren Hymer and Crawford Kent.

A five-year-old girl is left with a bookmaker as an I.O.U. for a racing bet. When her father does not return, the bookmaker, a grouchy, penurious chap, adopts her.

The child immediately starts winning over the rowdy citizens of the racing racket, but when they suddenly realize that she is learning their rough ways and talk, they agree to an unusual masquerade to re-establish her childish innocence.

What happens leads them through several new and quite thrilling experiences and culminates in a real romance between

HAT, COAT AND GLOVE

With stories of trial separations appearing more and more frequently in newspaper headlines, RKO-Radio is said to have picked a timely subject for its new production "Hat, Coat and Glove," romantic drama opening to-day at the "Queen's Theatre," featuring a cast headed by Richardo Cortez, Barbara Robbins and John Beal. The story centres about the dramatic aftermath of a martial holiday, when a prominent attorney and his wife separates to test their love, a dashing young artist steps into the picture. The drama takes on a startling turn, when the artist is arrested for murder and the lawyer, whose wife's love he has won, is called upon to defend him.

With the power to save his rival or allow him to be sent to his death, the attorney makes a dramatic decision which he carries out in a strikingly spectacular denouement. "Hat, Coat and Glove" gains its title from the articles of evidence which accuse the lover as the murderer.

the shabby bookmaker and the big-shot girl-friend.

CHARLIE CHAN IN EGYPT

At The King's

The astute Chinese detective Charlie Chan in the person of Warner Oland is with us once again on the screen in "Charlie Chan in Egypt," the current attraction at the King's Theatre.

The story carries Charlie Chan to the mystery scented land of the Pharaohs, in the valley of the Kings, amid the splendours and riches of the lasting places of the mighty monarchs of thousands of years ago. Priceless gold and jewelled treasure have been taken from among those brought to light by the French Historical Society's expedition and Charlie Chan's task is to trace the culprits and the stolen treasures. A murderer is at hand and death threatens the family of the expedition leader. How Chan outwits the murderer and how his cunning is matched with his courage is fully represented in the picture.

The story is thrilling and ingeniously made and the mystery is as baffling as it is dangerous. It is the best Charlie Chan picture to date and that alone ought to be ample guarantee for excellent entertainment. O.M.O.

MONEY STRINGENCY IN SHAOHSING

Attempted Monopoly In Paper Money Trade

Shanghai, Sept. 14.—Since the arrival of the Magistrate early in the year great hopes of improvement in local government have been expected. Repeatedly one hears complaints that men available for use have not the technical knowledge required, hence the progress is meagre. In order to provide such personnel it has been decided to set up a training institute for men needed in the various departments. Now 160 young men of middle school standard have applied for entrance and after examination this week the successful candidates will be given intensive training. Later it is hoped that these will be available for posts in the county subdivisions or assist in other parts where reform is needed. In addition to his own county duties here, the Magistrate has also been appointed as special supervisor of government in other counties.

TROUBLE IN PAPER TRADE
About a month ago great trouble arose in this city among the various sections of workers employed in making paper money. It appears an attempt was made to set up a monopoly. According to the workers, the operation of the monopoly would bring great hardship to those whose day of work are far too few and uncertain at the moment. Sympathetic craftsmen from neighbouring counties crowded into the city and created such a tumult that police had to be summoned from other parts and a curfew order issued. Finally the hateful monopoly was abolished, but only after much damage was done to certain firms interested in the monopoly. Some estimate the damage at $100,000.

Battled Off
The music swelled louder and louder. The pianist seemed to work himself into a frenzy, and then the music suddenly dwindled down to nothing.
"You were quite right about your playing, Mr. Jones," said the hostess. "You said you'd rattle a few things off on the piano, and you have two yases and a picture frame."

THEIR OWN TEMPLE

Ancient Model Of Creek Barge

Shanghai, Sept. 14.

To-day, many of Shanghai's old landmarks are fast disappearing, being superseded on all sides by modern structures of steel and concrete. It was not so long ago that the "North-China Daily News" organized a search for old-style Chinese buildings having interesting histories, and which at one time were important landmarks, perhaps well remembered by many old China hands, but which now are almost drowned in an oblivion of ever-progressing modernization.

Perhaps one of the most fascinating of these old landmarks, however, was overlooked in this search. It ranks among the oldest of the still-existing temples built when Shanghai was still a village of bamboo or straw huts on the mud banks of the Whangpoo. On the south side of Amoy Road, almost at its junction with Soochow and Fokien Roads and within a stone's throw of the wooden Fokien Road Bridge in Louza District, stands this temple, one of the quaintest and most interesting that the writer has ever entered. It was built for and dedicated to the boatmen of the Soochow Creek, and to-day it still performs that mission.

INCONSPICUOUS ENTRANCE

Its entrance is unprepossessing, so much so that, although the writer passed it almost every day for nearly eighteen months, it was only through pure chance and a little natural inquisitiveness that the discovery was made.

Passing through its inconspicuous doorway, one enters a clean, bright courtyard, perhaps, if one is fortunate enough, to be greeted by the keeper of the temple a delightful type of elderly Chinese, placidly living his simple life amid a city which characterizes a rush and scramble for this world's goods, ever ready to welcome a visitor with a cheery yet may be bashful smile, creasing his weather worn face, nervously puffing his Chinese pipe the while.

In the courtyard of the Boatmen's Temple are two most interesting features. One is a huge urn standing in the middle of the Area and in which devotees burn their paper sycee and sandal wood. According to the inscriptions on this huge urn it is some four hundred years old, and was brought from elsewhere when this temple was erected. Many of the characters have been, eroded by time and the weather, but should the visitor know his character he will easily be enabled to read enough of the inscriptions to learn something of the urn's history.

A FRESH WATER WELL

The other interesting thing in the courtyard is a fresh water well. Only about two feet in diameter but many feet in depth it supplied the boatmen of the Soochow Creek, when their boats were tied up to the banks of the creek nearby, with their fresh water for drinking purposes, and even in these days of pure-water-on-tap through the courtesy of the Shanghai Waterworks Company Limited, boatmen still patronize the waters of this well, which incidentally are surprisingly clean, cold and fresh. In fact, the writer sampled the waters upon the assurance of the temple keeper that no harm would befall him and found them to be quite

BIG BOOKINGS

For The Queen Mary

Applications for reservations in the 73,000-ton wonder-ship the Queen Mary, for her maiden voyage next May have reached the Cunard-White Star offices from all parts of the world.

A speeding-up on the final stages of construction is taking place at Clydebank.

The army of workmen on board will increase every week during the next few months.

Meanwhile the great French liner Normandie, holder of the Transatlantic Blue Riband, will be taken off the run and laid up for repairs in October.

French Line officials deny that this means any financial failure.

The Normandie was never intended for use in the slack winter months, when the average number of passengers is only about 500.

Between May and August she carried an average of 1,167 passengers on each of nine trips.

wholesome tasting, and refreshing

On the eastern sides of the courtyard are the quarters of the temple keeper and his assistants, while on the south side stands the sanctuary. As with all Chinese temples, this latter place is dark and somewhat gloomy walls, ceiling, idols and furniture all covered with thick grime, the result of many, many moons of cleaning neglected. Perched in their box-like shrines, with curtains partly drawn, before them the gods stare upon one, at first unconsciously inspiring one with an awe akin to fear.

One stands in the gloom and almost perfect silence, to ponder upon these emblems of a people's belief, which remain in their niches throughout the years, perhaps centuries moving neither hand nor foot, eye nor tongue, and yet commanding the obeisances of human beings. Little wonder that a race much given to superstitious beliefs should stand either in awe or deep respect of these idols and the spirits which they severally represent!

MODEL OF A BARGE

Looking up toward the roof, our eyes gradually growing accustomed to the gloom and sudden transition from brilliant sunshine to the darkness within the building, we see a most beautiful executed model of a Soochow Creek barge, about twenty feet in length. It is a perfect model complete in every detail, from the boatman's utensils and furniture to the oars, capstan and anchor. From its appearance it could not have been touched by human hands for many years, for a thick coating of grime and dust covers every inch of its surface, undoubtedly hiding from view much of its beautiful workmanship and carving. A closer and better view of the boat was unobtainable, however, much to the writer's disappointment, and he perforce had to be satisfied with the temple keeper's statements to the effect that the model was at least two hundred years old, perhaps more.

From the friendly dispositioned old keeper it was ascertained that the Boatmen's Temple was of no particular creed, neither Buddhist, Taoist nor other belief, but purely general to the creeds, whatever they may be, of the Soochow Creek boatmen. The Spirit of the Water, the god of the fish, and other similar deities one would suppose are revered in this temple.

MARRIAGE

By Ramon Novarro

Marriage, religion, and Hollywood were the subjects on which Ramon Novarro, idol of the screen, spoke to me for nearly an hour in his suite in the Dorchester, London, yesterday (writes a Sunday Dispatch reporter).

He sat with a glass of beer at his elbow and a cigarette in his hand.

"I come to England with no idea," he said. "I am under contract to no studio. In fact I am a free man, and am going to spend my time working on my new musical show 'Royal Exchange,' which is being put on in a few weeks' time."

WRITING THE MUSIC

"I want a play that people will come to see, not only because I am a film star but also because the play itself is a good one."

"I have composed or re-written much of the music, and I am altering the ending of the play. As it is now, it is decidedly unhappy. The hero dies, and I am going to write it to show that even death can be a thing of happiness and the realisation of ideals."

Religion and marriage he holds sacred and a topic not to be discussed lightly.

"Nineteen years ago, before I took up acting," he said, "I almost went into a monastery. I wanted to be a priest, but as I grew up and went in for acting my ideas changed."

I asked him if he had ever contemplated getting married.

"Now and again I have thought about it, but even to think about marriage in Hollywood is dangerous," he replied.

"A letter or a present to a lady friend is always taken as food for gossip."

"Marriage is something sacred and should not be played with. It should be contemplated seriously, and the first flush of excitement should not be expected to last for ever."

SUPERFICIAL HOLLYWOOD

"There is a settling-down, differences of opinion, and all that should be taken into consideration. Marriage, as the sacred partnership of life, should be made to last. Generally speaking, Hollywood is a death trap to married happiness, everything is so superficial."

Mr. Novarro thinks that all the talk of his being mobbed whenever he ventures on the street is ridiculous.

"There have been times, I admit, when crowds have been awkward and embarrassing," he said, "but this morning I took a long walk in the rain."

"I did not wear a hat and no one recognised me. I could look around at the people with the curiosity of any visitor to London. But as it was at 7 o'clock in the morning, perhaps that is why no one recognised me; they didn't expect me to be up so early."

HIS FILM TERMS

He said that if he made films in England he would like to co-direct the productions, and would be made answerable to no one for his decisions on the question of story, casting, and acting.

MOTH FLAME DANCE

Girl Who Catches Fire On Stage

The L.C.C. Entertainments Committee has banned "The Moth and the Flame" ballet in "Round About Regent Street," at the London Palladium.

They say that it is dangerous and liable to cause a panic.

Three officials of the L.C.C. Fire Committee saw the dance performed three weeks ago, but it was after some time that the Entertainments Committee gave their decision.

They refuse to give their reason.

WINGS BURNED

In the dance Jeanne Devereaux enters dressed as a moth through an open window. She flutters around a giant lighted candle, getting closer and closer to the flame.

Her wings catch fire and are burned completely off.

Miss Devereaux wears an asbestos tunic and helmet as protection. There is a momentary black-out, during which she strips off the asbestos and emerges in skin-tight fleshings.

The dance has been performed in America for more than a year. It has been done twice nightly during a two-weeks preliminary run at Brighton, where the chief of the Fire Committee passed it without demur.

Doctor's Orders

Lady: What caused you to become a tramp?

Tramp: The family physician, mum. He advised me to take long walks after meals, and I've been walking after 'em ever since.

Etiquette

An American film producer asked an English friend to watch the "shooting" of one of his "society" films to see that it was all right.

After a time the Englishman asked: "Why does that man keep his hat on when he's talking to a lady in the drawing-room?"

"Sure," said the producer, "he can't take it off—another lady's coming in presently and he's got to raise his hat to her."

WEREWOLF OF LONDON

Universal master of mystery! That title is unchallenged wherever motion pictures are made of the weird and baffling in human nature, for daring exploration in the dark and hidden crannies of mysterious and dangerous personalities, Universal stands alone in the movie world. This leadership in the mystery field dates back to 1931 and extends over a series of notable feature films. It started with "Dracula," progressed through "Frankenstein," "The Invisible Man," "The Mystery of Edwin Drood," and "The Bride of Frankenstein," and comes to full flower in "Werewolf of London" scheduled to be screened at the "Queen's Theatre" at an early date.

Henry Hull has the title role in this screen study of a scientist who becomes infected with lycanthropy and turns periodically into a murderous creature half man—half beast. Among the other featured players are Warner Oland, Varlette Hobson, Lester Matthews, Spring Byington and Clark Williams. Mystery was a dead letter in Hollywood in 1931 when Universal decided that the talking screen offered unlimited possibilities for exciting pictures of that kind. All other companies avoided the film of uncanny thrills as the most dangerous kind of dynamite at the box-office.

Depression

"Angels," says a clergyman, "don't eat." Conditions, of course, have been bad everywhere recently.

Two "B's"

Abyssinia prefers to be known as E'hiopia. That should help the headline writers and those whose pens will insist on writing two "B's."

Reveries

A psychologist says that it is possible for a person to train himself to wake up at any hour of the morning he wishes. This is known as the triumph of mind over matter.

GOIN' TO TOWN

Hollywood judging from results, has come to the conclusion that there is something lucky about Mae West for the men who work with her in pictures.

Kent Taylor, Cary Grant and Roger Pryor, the three "tall, dark and handsome" who worked with the star of Paramount's "Goin' to Town," which comes on Saturday to the King's Theatre, in her previous pictorial efforts, are convinced that Miss West's "magic" touch has affected their careers.

Of this Kent Taylor, one of Mae's "tall, dark an' handsome" in "No Angel," is convinced. And after Cary Grant appeared with Mae in that same picture, and previously with her in "She Done Him Wrong," he also admitted that Mae has "lucky vibrations."

Taylor, receiving new major assignments at Paramount, points out that "things started breaking well for me right after I worked with Miss West."

"She is an actress who instills confidence in her leading men," he pointed out. "Frankly I was scared to death when they put me in that picture with her, before Miss West took me aside and gave me a light talk. 'She told me to take it easy, that I was really going places from then on. And I believed her. You can't help believing her.'"

Maid: Good! Why, ma'am, the last time he was in gaol they took eight months off his sentence for good behaviour.

COAL COOLIE FINED

Sentence of two months hard labour was imposed by Mr. Schofield at the Central Magistracy yesterday on Tam Lam (41) a coal coolie, who appeared on a charge of receiving three yards of cloth from 178 Johnston Road, Wanchai. It was said by the prosecution that at 8.45 a.m. on Tuesday defendant went to the Fook Hing pawnshop and endeavoured to pawn the cloth for $1.50. He gave his address as 20, McGregor Street, but on being told there was no such address, he became frightened and ran. He was chased and caught by the pawnbroker.

Taken to the police station, defendant stated he had been given the cloth to pawn by a friend living at 180 Johnston Road. The friend could not be traced there. On coming out of the entrance, the detective noticed that the showcase of 178 Johnston Road had been opened from the back. Complainant, a tailor, recognised the piece of cloth which together with nine other pieces had been stolen from the showcase by means of taking down iron bars and removing the shutters.

POSSESSION OF OPIUM

Five Chinese men appeared on remand before Mr. Thomson at the Kowloon Magistracy yesterday and were convicted on charges of possession of opium on board the Bank Line steamer Pleasantryville and with doing an act preparatory to exportation. Heavy fines were imposed, but leave to appear

HEAVY SENTENCES

Appearing on remand before Mr. W. Schofield at the Central Magistracy yesterday, two unemployed men, Chau Lin and Mak Chik To, were convicted on a charge of having demanded with menaces $50 from Chau Tong, a bricklayer's foreman, at Wanchai. First defendant was sentenced to four months' hard labour, while the other was sentenced to six months. The Magistrate sounded a note of warning that in future cases of this nature similar sentences would be imposed.

It will be recalled that on September 10, the complainant was approached by the first defendant and several others. First defendant acted as the spokesman of the party, and told complainant that as he was in quite good circumstances, he should give them $50 for their Society. Complainant refused, and made a report at the Police Station.

Detective-Sergeant Fitches, for the prosecution, stated there was no criminal record against the defendants. Police enquiries showed that Mak Chik To was a member of an unlawful Society and the first defendant, who was unemployed for some time, had recently joined. There were many cases of this nature at present, the Society existing by threatening people of fairly good circumstances.

was granted to fourth and fifth defendants on the application of Mr. G. S. Hugh-Jones, who appeared for their defence.

NATIONAL LAND CONFERENCE

Opens In Nanking

(Special to the "Hong Kong Daily Press" (Copyright).)

Nanking, Sept. 12. In the presence of about 90 representatives from the various provinces, the first National Land Administration Conference was formally opened under the chairmanship of Mr. Tao Lu-chien, Acting Minister of Interior, at 3 o'clock this morning in the Auditorium of the Ministry of Interior. Among the high government officials present were Mr. Wang Ching-wei, President of the Executive Yuan, Mr. Chao Yuan-chung, vice-president of the Legislative Yuan.

Following the speech of Mr. Tao, Mr. Wang Ching-wei addressed the Conference saying that the present conference not only provided an opportunity for the local authorities to exchange views with the central authorities regarding the various knotty problems of the land administration, but also enabled the representatives from the various provinces and municipalities to exchange views among themselves for the improvement of the land administration. Mr. Wang finally expressed the hope that the problems of organization of the land administration offices, demarcation of administrative powers, and the funds for the administrative expenses would be thoroughly discussed and satisfactorily solved at the present conference.

FRANK TALKS

Mr. Shao Yuan-chung, vice-president of the Legislative Yuan, who addressed the inaugural session of the National Land Administration Conference on behalf of the National Government voiced the hope that delegates who came from all parts of the country would frankly report to the general assembly the difficulties which confronted the local authorities in the execution of the Land Law recently promulgated by the National Government.

In view of the peculiar local conditions in various places, Mr. Shao said, "such difficulties are bound to arise, and it is only through open discussions that ways for clearing up the handicaps may be devised and remedial measures can be taken." Recounting the history of China's land enactments, Mr. Shao said that the Land Law was drafted by the Legislative Yuan in 1930, and was later only promulgated by the National Government. It was, until last April, however, that the regulations governing the enforcement of the Land Law were formally promulgated. These regulations, according to Mr. Shao, are elastic in nature.

NEW DUTCH LAWS

(Special to the "Hong Kong Daily Press" (Copyright).)

Amsterdam, Sept. 17. New laws of exceptional importance will be submitted to Parliament shortly, announced Queen Wilhelmina in a speech at the opening of Parliament on Tuesday. They will concern the appropriations for the country's defence, the alteration to some of the provisions of the constitution, the prevention of the formation of private combative organisations, and the alteration of the alien's law in connection with the question of refugees.

The devaluation of currency, emphasised the Queen in turning to the economic situation, or the departure from the gold standard, could under no circumstances be regarded as being of benefit to the nation. The Government would examine the possibility of promoting the industry and providing employment by gradual abolition of the contingent system, as well as other measures.

The Government was watching the development of the international situation with especial attention, declared the Queen, stressing however that the relations with the other states would continue to be on a friendly footing.

She hoped that the League of Nations would succeed in reaching a settlement for all the opposing interests, and would do all in her power to support its efforts. — Transocean Kuo Min.

BRITISH FINANCES

London, Sept. 17.

Exchequer returns show that the total ordinary revenue, excluding self-balancing items, amounts to £22,361,880, compared with £22,558,898 at the corresponding date last year. Receipts from Customs and excise are nearly five million pounds more than for the same period of the last financial year. The total ordinary expenditure is £22,843,240, against £23,013,549 at the corresponding date of 1934. — British Wireless.

SIX SOLDIERS

Have Free Trip

Six Chinese soldiers and an officer delayed the sailing of the s.s. Fook On during her last trip on the West River, when they came aboard and demanded a trip on the vessel to Nam Kon Hau. The soldiers came on board at Sham Shui armed with rifles, and in spite of the fact that they were informed by Captain Owen, that it was against the regulations to carry armed men, they refused to leave. Even the aid of the local police force was insufficient to persuade them to go ashore. Meanwhile the vessel was being held up by Captain Owen, being reluctant to leave against the stringent regulations regarding armed passengers.

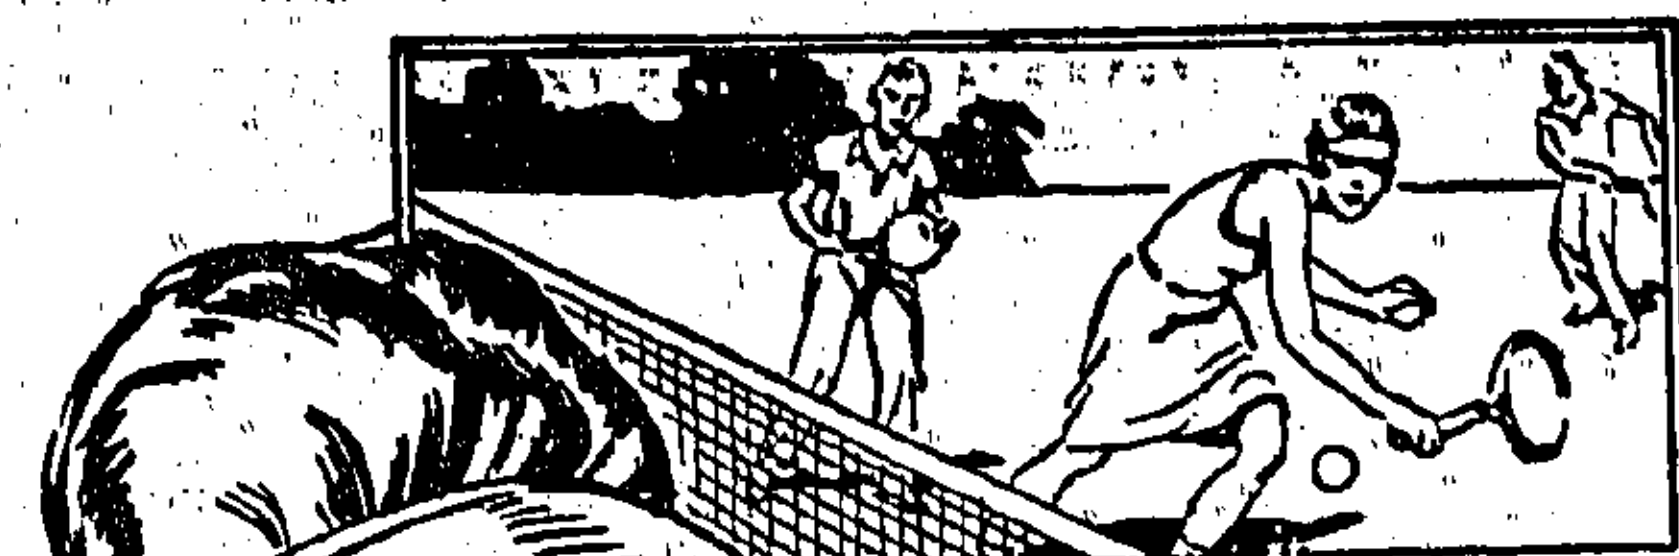

STICK TO THE SHIP

After a lengthy discussion it was agreed that the position should be made known to the senior officer at Sham Shui City, who had ordered them to proceed to Nam Kon Hau.

Some of the soldiers thereupon left but returned a few hours later stating that they had been ordered to "stick to the ship as far as Nam Kon Hau."

There being no other alternative, Captain Owen proceeded on his journey, reaching Nam Kon Hau early the next morning.

The soldiers left the ship without any trouble, but it is understood that they did not pay any fare.

I am very fastidious about my Talcum Powder

After the bath following vigorous exercise we all need a powder that is absolutely smooth and silky. That's why I use Cuticura Talcum. It is the most exquisitely fine powder I've ever used. And the perfume is a wonderful blend—both fragrant and wholesome—it smells so clean and sweet.

The reason why Cuticura Talcum is used by women who are extra particular about their toilet powder is that it has a fineness and purity which is unexcelled.

Cuticura is scientifically prepared by a special process—it has the same guaranteed quality of excellence which has made Cuticura Soap famous all over the world. If the skin is overheated and chafed, Cuticura Talcum soothes it at once. Its cool 'satin' softness is like a balm. Use it after bathing—before dancing or strenuous exercise. It absorbs perspiration—you stay sweet, dainty and fresh for hours.

Sold by all Chemists and Stores.

THE CRIMINAL SESSIONS

Warning By Chief Justice

"This type of offence is becoming far too common and this is the third case to-day before me of attempts made to destroy the credit of the Colony. For the information of the public and as far as it is in my power I am going to stop it," said the Chief Justice, Sir Atholl MacGregor, in passing sentence of 2½ years hard labour on Li Yiu, a travelling trader, when he was found guilty by a jury empanelled to try his case on charge, of (1) uttering a forged $10 note of the Chartered Bank of India at a Firewood Shop at Sai Yeung Choi Street, Mongkok on August 23 and (2) with the possession of a forged $10 note of the Chartered Bank of India at Yaumatei on August 24.

The jury Messrs. B. W. Simmonds (foreman), F. J. da Luz, Lu Chung Chih, Lee Jick Ting, Lam Ho Kwan, Hugh King Lee and E. Quinlan found the defendant guilty (unanimously) on the first count and a 6 to 1 verdict of guilty on the second.

TWO PIECES OF PAPER

For the prosecution, which was in the hands of Mr. J. A. Fraser, Assistant Attorney General instructed by Mr. W. J. Lockhart-Smith, it was stated that some difficulty would be encountered by an ordinary layman. Only an expert would be able to differentiate the genuine from the forged. There were many salient points in the forgeries. The paper was oily to the touch, printing was bad and the numbers were unevenly made. The picture was blurred at the back and the red colour was slightly different from the genuine. In the process of manufacture the note was printed first on one piece of paper for the front and then on another piece of paper for the back. These two pieces were later gummed together.

On August 23, the accused went to the firewood shop at Sai Yeung Choi Street and there after haggling for the price finally struck a bargain for a dollar's worth of wood. He tendered a $10 note for payment and was handed $9 in change for the note. He gave as an address No. 614 Nathan Road first floor and Mr. Fraser laid stress on the fact that the address was non-existent. The firewood was later sent to the address but the foks were unable to find same. On being told of the fact the complainant (Yeung Mun) became alarmed and brought the note to a money changer and was told it was a forgery. He became panicky and went about looking for the defendant.

ANOTHER ATTEMPT

The next day while his nephew Yeung Kiu was out near Yaumatei he recognised the defendant who was at the time in another firewood dealer's shop. He again bargained for a dollar's worth of firewood and no change. He thereupon left this shop and on walking out the street was followed by Yeung Kiu. A short distance away Yeung Kiu grappled with the defendant and a district watchman came up and assisted Yeung Kiu and took the defendant to the police station. The Station was only a short distance away and on the way the defendant was seen to discard a $10 note.

At the station when searched the genuine $10 note with a Chinese silver dollar was found in his possession.

When Yeung Mun (complainant) heard of his arrest he went to the station with the note and at once recognised him. The complainant's daughter who was at the shop when the transaction took place picked him out at an identification parade. Defendant was later charged but denied same.

EXPERT EVIDENCE

Continuing Mr. Fraser said it would be clearly seen that the defendant had no inclination of taking the firewood but was only intent on getting the change.

Mr. J. M. Panna, a clerk employed by the Chartered Bank of India, Australia gave expert evidence on the salient points of the forgery, after which corroborative evidence was given by Yeung Mun (complainant) Yeung Yuk (daughter of the last witness), A. S. P. Thompson regarding the identification parade held at the Yaumatei Police Station at which the defendant picked him up, Yeung Kiu, Foo Yuk Ching, Yuen Kwai Yung and Lo Yiu Kwan (interpreters). The last witness read out the charges to defendant in reply of which he said "I did not utter the forged banknotes."

BAD SIGHT

This closed the evidence of the crown and the defendant elected to give evidence from the dock.

Defendant said "I got those banknotes from my trade as a travelling trader. I am very old and my sight is bad. Not having seen a forged bank note I could not say whether those notes which I have obtained were good or bad. I thought it was good ones as otherwise I would not have used them. In the Police Station a similar one was found on me but I do not know whether that is a good one or not."

In this summing up His Lordship briefly reviewed the evidence given and stated that knowledge of the forgery of the notes was a very important point. If the defendant had guilty knowledge then the jury must be satisfied that the defendant handed in the $10 note and expected to get $9 change in return.

BRIEF RETIREMENT

After a brief retirement the jury returned verdict as stated above and defendant was sentenced to 2 years hard labour on the first count and six months on the second, the sentences to run consecutively.

On the application of Mr. Fraser in order was also made by His Lordship to reimburse Yeung Mun to the extent of $9 from the $10 genuine money found in the defendant's possession.

RETURNED BANISHEES

For breaches of the Deportation Ordinance four Chinese were charged before the Chief Justice, Sir Atholl MacGregor, at the Supreme Court yesterday and were each sentenced to three years' hard labour.

Lo Kwai was deported on July 28 last year for a period of 10 years and was arrested on September 4 this year. He stated that he returned to the Colony because he was suffering from growths on the back, and required an operation, as there was no skillful doctor in the country. Dr. Ingram Shaw, the medical officer in charge of Victoria Gaol, who had examined the accused, testified that no operation was required.

The other accused were: Wong Kwok-lee, who was banished on August 8, 1934 for a period of ten years and arrested on August 8 this year; So Fuk alias Li Tak who was arrested on August 8 this year after having been banished for life on November 6 last year; Wong Sang, alias Wong Tsol, who returned to the Colony on August 13 this year, after having been deported on January 2, 1935, for a period of ten years.

COUNTERFEIT COINS

Sentence of four years' hard labour was meted out to Leung Chung, aged 37, when he pleaded guilty before the Chief Justice Sir Atholl MacGregor at the Supreme Court yesterday to a charge of importing 936 counterfeit Hong Kong ten cent pieces into the Colony.

The prosecution was in the hands of Mr. J. A. Fraser the Assistant Attorney General while the accused was not legally represented.

The accused was arrested on August 28 when he was coming off the steamer Lee Hong at the Ping On Wharf. In pleading guilty, accused stated that he came to Hong Kong with a view to finding money for his mother who was ill, and on the way he met a friend who asked him to carry the coins.

AN OTHER CASE

Chiu Man, 35, who was arrested at the same place and time as the previous case was sentenced to three years' hard labour for importing 155 counterfeit Hong Kong ten cent pieces. Another charge of possession was not proceeded with.

Accused pleaded not guilty, and the following jury was empanelled: Messrs. J. Hoare (foreman), A. W. Hayward, H. Dillah, J. A. Gutierrez, Fung Shun-tsol, Tam Woon-tong, and Tse Kong-yin.

Prosecuting Mr. Fraser said that he coins were found on accused by a Chinese revenue officer immediately after he had landed from the motor vessel Lee Hong. He was subsequently taken to the Central Police Station where an experienced money-changer declared that the coins were all counterfeit.

When he was first charged at the Police Station, accused said: "I came to Hong Kong with a view

DEATH INQUIRY

The inquiry into the death of a Chinese male Cheng Qual, alias Cheng Yung Qual alias Cheng Yung Hing which occurred at the Gaol Hospital yesterday, was heard before Mr. Q.A.R. Macfadyen at the Central Magistracy yesterday afternoon. The jury were Messrs. S. Hung, L.A.R. Remedios and Lee Chan Kee.

Dr. G. I. Shaw, medical officer of the Prison Department, was called upon to give evidence. He said that the man died at the Prison Hospital yesterday. A post-mortem was held, and he found that signs of pneumonia were setting in. Deceased also had a boil on his face which turned septic, and this, he would say was the cause of death.

The jury unanimously gave a verdict of death caused by septicemia.

to calling on a friend or friends. A man on board the boat asked me to carry the money to the wharf. He promised to give me $1 for doing so. He, however, ran away when I was arrested."

OPENING

After evidence had been called to substantiate the prosecutor's opening statement, defendant giving evidence in the witness box said that he met a man while coming down to Hong Kong. He was on his way here to obtain money for medical cure for his sick mother. While on board he was shown how to make a dollar by carrying the over excess of silver to the value of $20, by a friend. When he landed he was searched and he readily admitted the silver was bad when a Chinese revenue officer broke one of them. He was unable to get hold of the man who gave him the job as the rush had carried him away from him.

After a short retirement the jury found the defendant guilty and he was sentenced, as stated above.

PROPERTY SALE

Kowloon Inland Lot

At Messrs. Lammert Brothers Auction Rooms, Duddell Street, yesterday afternoon, a valuable leasehold property, registered in the Land Office as the Remaining Portion of Section D, of Kowloon Inland Lot No. 548, together with all messages or tenements, erections and buildings, known as No. 16, Granville Road, Kowloon, was sold by order of the mortgagees by public auction.

The property is held from the Crown for the residue of the term of 75 years, commencing from the 4th June 1888, and the annual Crown Rental is $12.75.

The upset price for the property was $15,000.00, and this was advanced by bids of $500.00 until the sum of $18,000.00 was reached, when the Kwong Cheung Investment Co., Ltd. became the purchasers.

Mr. L. E. Lammert conducted the sale, while Messrs. Russ and Company were the solicitors for the mortgagees.

THE LESTER HOSPITAL

Shanghai, Sept. 14.

In these days of the depression, it is sad to reflect that not only is the punch being felt by business firms and companies, but by a hospital which, catering as it does to the needs of the lower-middle class and the really poor, does not depend for its existence upon the fees collected from patients but must rely on grants and donations from the local community. It is even sadder when it is realized that, although the amount of money needed to maintain it has decreased, the number of patients who cannot afford to pay anything, yet sorely need medical assistance, is increasing all the time.

The Lester Hospital for Chinese, better known, perhaps, as the "Shantung Road Hospital," is now in its 91st year of continual existence, a record for the whole of China. Since 1844, it has occupied its present site, in the heart of the Central District, and to it are brought the sick and injured from the district around, the French Concession, Nantao, and Chapel. Since its earliest days, it has had the support of the local foreign community, and has gained an enviable reputation.

Thanks to the generosity of the late Mr. Henry Lester, the hospital is now housed in a modern building, with up-to-date equipment. The notion is current to-day, however, that the endowment was quite sufficient to maintain the running of the hospital, but this is not the case. The depression has affected this as well as everything else. In 1934, for instance, despite the endowment, grants, voluntary donations, and receipts in general fees, the hospital experienced a loss of $23,293.75. And this notwithstanding the fact that salaries are being kept at a minimum, and rigid economy is being practised.

MEDICAL FEE OF 15 COPPERS
As an instance of the great deal of work the hospital is doing, it may be mentioned that the daily average of out-patients alone being treated is between 600 and 900. Some of these pay as much as 15 coppers; the majority are treated free.

The figures for the in-patients, too, are interesting. The average daily bill of those who pay is sixty cents. One-third of the patients, however, pay nothing whatsoever, while the majority of the remaining two-thirds pay on more than one-fifth of their cost of their treatment to the hospital.

The average business man may wonder where all this concerns him. Besides the sentimental factor which must be connected with a hospital which has grown up with the city, there are two main points for his consideration.

The first is that the health of the community as a whole vitally concerns himself, his family, and his business. The Lester Hospital for Chinese plays an important role in the keeping down of disease and sickness. It gives free treatment to those who, in the absence of any facilities provided and maintained by the community, would be forced to treat their illnesses themselves or go without. As an example of one of the smallest of the many things the hospital does towards helping the thousands of poor Chinese in the Settlement, it may be mentioned that a prescription which would cost $1.50 if filled by the average pharmacy costs those bringing it to the hospital a mere 25 cents. It was not so long ago when Dr.

NINE MONTHS'

For Serious Offence

Li Ping (29) an unemployed Chinese of 414 Reclamation Street, 3rd floor, was sentenced to nine months' imprisonment by the Kowloon Magistrate, Mr. W. M. Thomson yesterday for having carnal knowledge of a young Chinese girl named Chan Mei, aged 14 years, sometime between April 21 and September 19 of this year.

Inspector K. W. Andrew of the S.C.A., prosecuted. Defendant entered a plea of "not guilty."

Chan Po Sheung (58) father of the girl, and residing at 102 Fa Yuen Street, said that his daughter lived in the house with the family, but on April 21, she did not go home. He at once reported the matter to the Mongkok Police Station. "I next saw her about six days later, when my concubine brought her back to my house, accompanied by the defendant."

Witness said that his daughter related all that had happened since leaving the house, and after thinking the matter over he thought that the best solution would be to allow his daughter to marry the defendant. "Later I found out, however, that defendant was not in a position to support her, but I had agreed to hand her; over because I was afraid of the publicity."

On the night of September 16, I saw my daughter and I asked her to come to my house. Before she sat down to the meal, defendant came to the house and a quarrel arose. He attempted to take her away. Somebody downstairs blew the police whistle, which attracted a constable who took both of them to the station."

A GOOD GIRL

Inspector Andrew: Up to the time she went away on April 21, was she a good girl?—Yes.

Has she changed at all?—She looks very ill, but I do not know anything definitely about her health.

Magistrate: Are you aware that she is pregnant?—Yes.

Magistrate: Has she suffered physically?—Yes. She has complained of lack of food. Furthermore she has developed deafness and seems to be mentally slightly unbalanced.

Chan Mei, 14 years of age, the complainant, said that she first met the defendant about a year ago at the Kwong Wah Hospital, where she was a patient. Defendant informed her that he was employed at the hospital, and the following day she met him again. That night they went to a boarding house at her suggestion, "and the following morning I asked defendant to take me to the country for a walk," continued witness. Defendant complied with this request, but returned the following day to Hong Kong, stating that he intended to speak to her parents. "Later defendant returned with my mother and we all came to Hong Kong."

In reply to the Bench, witness said that defendant was the second man with whom she had sexual relations. "Some time ago when my parents were in Hong Kong, I met another man but I am pregnant by defendant."

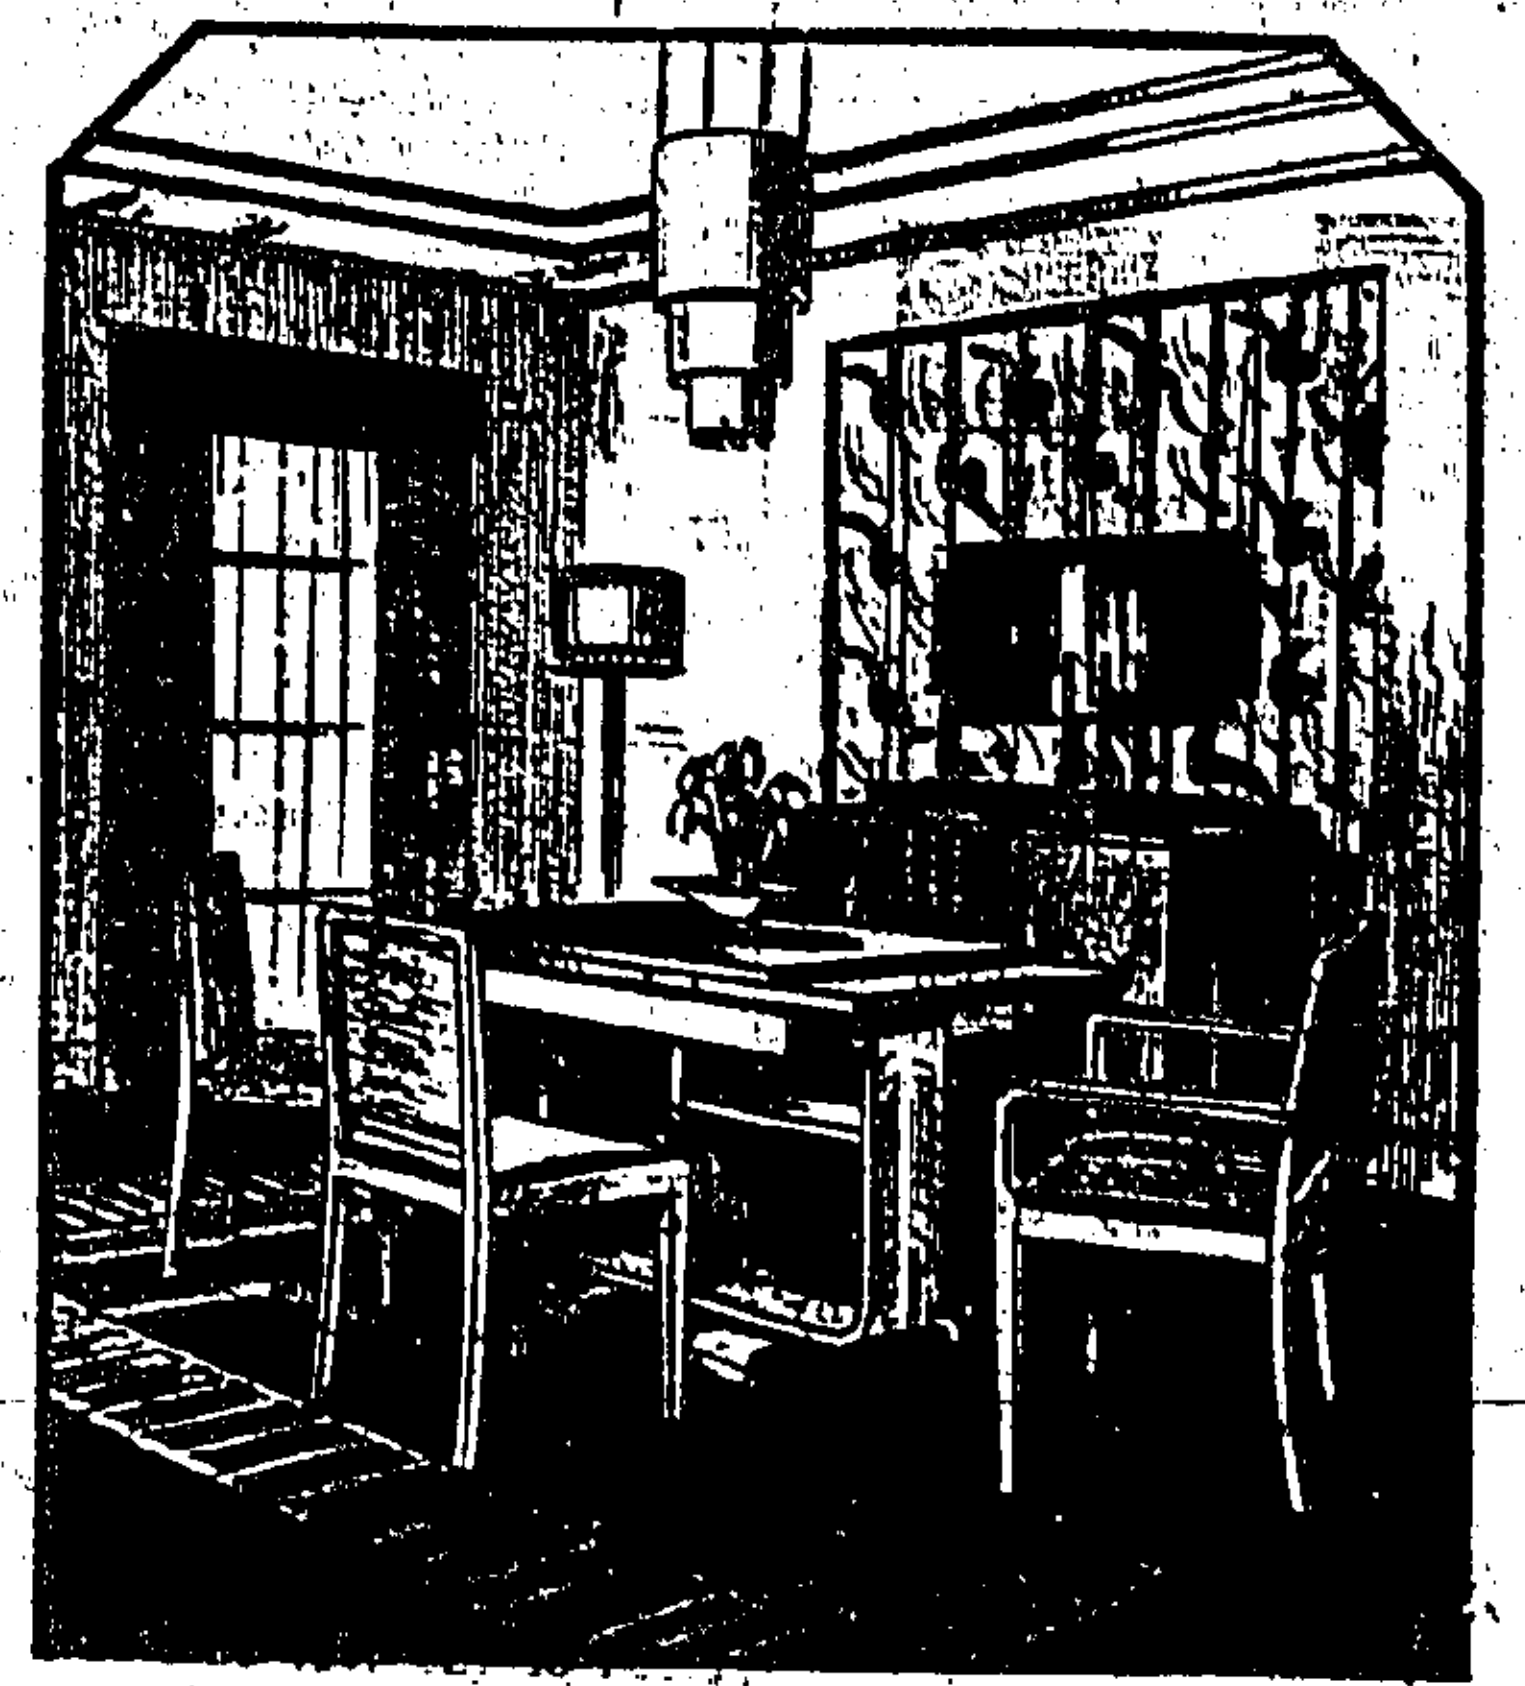

Questioned by defendant, witness agreed that it was she who asked him to take her to his house. He had replied that he could do so, unless she married him. She said that she was willing to become his wife before going to the country, they both registered at a hotel for a day.

PARENTS ADMONISHED

Defendant, from the dock, said that the parents of the girl had quarrelled with each other regarding the marriage of their daughter to him. Finally they were both severely admonished and the marriage was allowed to take place. The mother was always against the marriage, and one day when his wife did not return home, he went to her parents' house. "They were trying to entice her away, and I warned them against this."

Inspector Andrew said that defendant had no police record but he was unable to account for any peaceful employment for the last 7 years. Sentence was imposed as stated above.

J. Lee H. Paterson, the superintendent, in response to enquiries, said that the average daily attendance of emergency patients was one for every hour of the day. Now, in response to a similar question, he would have to say, over 35 a day. The number of out-patients, too, who call daily for treatment to ulcers and non-capacitating ailments, seven years ago totalled 90,000 a year. Last year, the figures had swollen to 143,000, and already this year the figure is nearing the 20,000 mark.

L. C. FURNITURE

Is well known for its design and good workmanship. Its price is not higher than that of any other furniture of equal quality and it will be doing its job smoothly, efficiently and without annoying breakdowns long after the "exceptional bargains" of to-day have been used for firewood. It is not our policy to compete in very low-priced furniture, which would inevitably mean an alteration of our standards. We are, however, constantly endeavouring to give our customers better value for money.

STAYING OUT

It is paradoxical with one breath to insist on aloofness from European affairs and with the next breath to attack the various phenomena connected with those affairs. But precisely this paradox is in evidence in the United States. Aloofness from European affairs is the creed of the vast bulk of Americans. A few months ago the Senate refused adherence to the World Court. Now it is engaged in perfecting bills which seek to assure aloofness when the temptation to interfere is uppermost—namely, in the unhappy event of a foreign war. Yet the American remains quite as ready as other nations to express his opinion about another country's affairs.

If he spoke his mind only in the privacy of his own home, in conversation with his friends, there would be no cause for concern. The American is a free agent. What he thinks and says is, within the sanctions of a law-abiding society, his own private business.

This freedom, however, does not clothe either the governor or the legislative body of a state. They are public persons, officials. In virtue of the office to which they have been elected, their acts implicate an entire commonwealth. This is the situation created when a governor or a state law-making body enters a protest officially against the internal policies, however objectionable, of the German Government. It would be less than candid not to recognize that this protest does coincide with the feelings of millions of Americans with respect to events in Germany. But Americans hesitate to give official expression to their sentiments in a way that might help to heal international situations. Should there not be greater hesitation between feeling and official expression where the action must irritate without helping?

Lately there has been much discussion over the invasion of state affairs by the Federal Government. Here is a converse illustration of the invasion of federal affairs by a state. The constitutional prohibition on the states to make any treaties or alliances is an explicit reservation of foreign affairs to the domain of the Federal Government. That fervent States' reformer, Thomas Jefferson, said that the Federal Government was nothing more than the American department of foreign affairs. It is important to the smooth conduct of American foreign affairs that this basic rule should be observed strictly.

The temptation for state or local officials irresponsibly to invade this field is strong at times when such acts are undeniably popular and have a strong vote-getting appeal.

Dated the 17th day of September, 1935.

NO FURTHER INQUIRY

Into Gareth Jones Murder

Peking, Sept. 17.

It is learned that no new enquiry into the circumstances surrounding the murder of Gareth Jones has yet been undertaken, the first enquiry being not yet completed.

At the time of the murder the Embassy was making representations to the Chinese Government and requested an enquiry and punishment of those concerned which the Chinese had already been ordered to do.

The Embassy is now asking for the result of the enquiries so far made by the Chinese authorities. The suggestion made in London that Jones was possibly murdered "because he knew too much" is generally regarded here as extremely silly.

GALLANT BRITISH OFFICERS

Simla, Sept. 18.
Captain H. C. Youngman, Bombay Grenadiers and Lieut. G. R. Hawks, Royal Artillery were awarded the Military Cross for conspicuous gallantry in face of the enemy on August 23 during operations against the Mohmands.

Capt. Youngman carried out a difficult operation, clearing a ridge strongly held by the enemy and displayed great personal gallantry and leadership of a high order.

Lieut. Hawks' battery was constantly in action all day long and did magnificent shooting, completely disregarding heavy accurate sniping to which it was continuously exposed in order to give the infantry the necessary support.

THE DUTCH BUDGET

Deficit Reported

The Hague, Sept. 17.
The Netherlands budget for 1935 shows an estimated deficit of 109,000,000 guilders, which is expected to be increased to 119,000,000 guilders owing to the reduction in excise and other duties.

In order to meet the deficit, the Government proposes to reduce public expenditure, thus saving 78,000,000 guilders, and by changes in the organisation of the disablement fund and social insurance, to save 13,000,000 guilders more.

The sales tax, succession tax and dividend tax will be increased twenty per cent., and a new tax will be imposed on pleasure tours abroad. These measures, it is estimated, will produce 28,000,000 guilders.

LEAGUE COUNCIL SEAT FOR CHINA

Arguments Broadcast By Minister At Berne

Geneva, Sept. 18.

China's Arguments for a seat on the League Council were explained in detail by Mr. Hoo, Chinese Minister, at Berne, in a broadcast speech.

Mr. Hoo declared that the Asiatic Continent did not have a single member on the Council. It was true that Turkey might be called an Asiatic country owing to her geographical position, but she was becoming more and more a nation with European interests and anyhow she could not be concerned with representing the true civilisation of the Far East.

Opinion was growing in China that the League generally views the checks it has suffered in the settlement of non-European conflicts and the Council particularly views its present composition as organisms designed above all to defend European interests and the peace of Europe.

Mr. Hoo said that if China with her 450 million inhabitants and a country corresponding to all the qualifications of Council membership is not admitted to the Council, it is because the present collaboration of China is not considered useful to the League.

In this case the Chinese might well ask whether the League is useful to China and whether China's attachment to the League and to the covenant, which the League allowed to be broken with impunity, is worth while.

The speaker added that this viewpoint was not his or that of the Chinese Government, but it was gaining ground in China. It was to combat this viewpoint and demonstrate to the Chinese public the opinion that peace and justice depend on the League being strong and truly universal, and that the League is not uninterested in China that the Chinese Government raised the question of China's representation on the Council.

EXPLANATION BY RICKETT

The Concession Rules

London, Sept. 17.

Mr. F. N. Rickett, the broker who arranged the American oil concession in Ethiopia, interviewed by 'Reuter' with regard to the resignations of Sir Edward Mountbatten and Mr. L. C. Patterson as directors of the Mosul Oilfields, Ltd., and the British Oil Development Co., declared that it was a vital condition of the concession that the Company holding it must be British and have a British Chairman as well as offices in Great Britain.

This doubtless explained Lord Goschen's retention of the Chairmanship. He added that he understood Mr. William R. Brown was retaining his seat on both Boards, at the request of the original British shareholders, who otherwise would be entirely without representation.

SENSATION IN CITY

London, Sept. 17.
The news that Italy had gained control of the Moscow oilfields, a limited and sister company of the British Oil Development Company, which is the holder of the Iraq concession in oil fields west of the Tigris, caused a sensation in the city on Tuesday.

Two British members of the board resigned and the resignation of the third is expected. At present there are 13 Italian directors but it seems probable this number will be increased now that Italian interests amount to 52 per cent. of the capital.

In this connection it is pointed out in financial circles that according to the terms of the concession the Company must be domiciled in England. When the parent holding Company was floated in 1932 the capital was divided among British, Italian, German, French and Swiss interests in the proportion of 50, 25, 25, 45, and 12 per cent. respectively.

THE POPE

On War Danger

(Special Air Mail Service)

London, Sept. 3.
The Pope received at Castel Gandolfo yesterday Roman Catholic nurses from all parts of the world who are holding their congress here. After saying that nurses knew the horrors of war and what devastation it brought in the moral field, he declared that the mere thought of war made one shudder.

We see (continued the Pope) that abroad there are references to a war of conquest, of an offensive war. Here is a supposition upon which we do not even wish to fix our thoughts; it is a supposition which is disconcerting. A war which was only of conquest would evidently be an unjust war; something which exceeds every imagination, something which is indescribably sad and horrible. We cannot think of an unjust war; we cannot contemplate its possibility, and we deliberately reject it. We do not believe in, we do not want to believe in, an unjust war.

On the other hand, in Italy they say that it would be a just and justifiable war, because it would be a defensive war to preserve Italian frontiers against continuous and incessant dangers, a war which has become necessary for the expansion of a population which increases day by day, a war undertaken for the defence of the material security of a country. It is at the same time true that if this need of expansion may exist, if there exists as well the necessity of assuring the defence of the frontier, we cannot help hoping that it may be possible to reach a solution of all the difficulties by other means which do not involve war. We do not know by what means, but we do not think it is impossible. This possibility must be studied.

One thing seems to us certain: if the need of expansion is a fact of which account must be taken, the right of defence has certain limits which must be observed. If this defence is not to become guilty, in any case we pray to God that He may second the activities and the efforts of men of clear vision who understand the exigencies of the true happiness of the peoples and of social justice, of all who do their best, not by means of

FRENCH PRESS APPEAL TO ITALY

To Abandon Her Present Attitude

(Special to "Hong Kong Daily Press")

(By Telegraph, Copyright, Telegraphic Messages Ordinance, 1894. Received, September 18, 4.30 p.m.)

Paris, September 18.

That France would not fail to participate in the measures provided by the League of Nations covenant should Italy not abandon her uncompromising attitude, is the noteworthy conclusion of an appeal in the semi-official paper "Le Temps" to Italy not to "wilfully and without good reason, destroy the structure of peace which her sons had helped to make with their blood."

Italy's claims can be understood, declares the paper, but observes that Britain made herself advocate and the written law, and it was therefore no wonder if all those who looked to Geneva for the protection of their sovereignty took Britain's side.

With a striking unanimity all the other papers address a similar appeal to Italy to be reasonable and avoid an open breach, pointing out that France would take part in any measure upon which the League of Nations might decide.—Transocean Kuo Min.

Geneva, Sept. 18.

The Committee of Five will meet at 10.30 this morning to put the finishing touches to their report after which it will immediately be put in the hands of the Italian and Abyssinian delegates.—Reuter.

GENEVA TENSION

Geneva, Sept. 18.

A high state of nervous tension exists in League circles pending the Italo-Abyssinian reply, though the latter is not expected to-night. It is learned, however, that the Committee's proposals provide for a large measure of League tutelage in the shape of a general adviser and provincial commissioners. The proposals in the present form do not preserve any of these posts for Italy. It is generally felt that it would be difficult to impose an Italian on Abyssinia as chief adviser.

It is provided that the Emperor's assent should be given to all advisers nominated.—Reuter.

FULL CONTROL FOR EMPEROR

Paris, September 18.

The Emperor of Abyssinia will be given full control or any technical advisers who may be appointed in accordance with the Committee of Five's recommendations, say Geneva reports here. Further it is explicitly provided that there must be no semblance of Italian military or political domination over Abyssinia. On the other hand Abyssinia must be declared ready to accept foreign assistance to enable her to develop and police her territories.—Reuter.

STATESMEN CONFERENCE

Paris, Sept. 18.

M. Laval conferred with Baron Aloisi and Mr. Anthony Eden and with the Abyssinian delegate M. Hawariat on Tuesday evening, according to the Geneva correspondent of a semi-official newsagency, who expresses the belief that the conferences served the purpose of informing the Italian and Abyssinian delegates the outline of the conciliation proposals elaborated by the Committee of Five.—Transocean Kuo Min.

MILITARY MISSION

Rome, Sept. 18.

The Chief of the Italian General Staff, Marshal Badoglio arrived back from France on Tuesday and had a long conversation with Signor Mussolini. Badoglio made a report on the results of his conversations with the French General Staff, regarding which it is understood that the Italian Government are very satisfied.—Transocean Kuo Min.

REPLY TO FRANCE

London, Sept. 18.

It is understood that the British reply to the French Government enquiry as regards Britain's attitude in the event of an act of unprovoked aggression in Europe, especially in reference to Austria, will be made in a few days. It will probably be written and follow the lines of Sir Samuel Hoare's speech at the League Assembly where he declared that Britain was firm in adherence to her obligations under the covenant of the League.

It is emphasised that there is no misunderstanding between the British and French in regard to the implication of Britain's adherence to the covenant and British circles firmly believe that the reply will satisfy the French Government.—Reuter.

DISCUSSION IN ITALY

Meeting Of Entire Cabinet

Rome, Sept. 18.

The entire Cabinet with Benito Duce presiding resumed at 10 a.m. the session which was adjourned last Saturday. The findings of the Committee of Five or at least their substance will be before the Cabinet during its two or three hours' sitting. A communique will be issued at about 3 p.m. which may announce a decision of more definite importance than last Saturday's communique.

It is also possible that the meeting will fix a date for the Fascist test mobilisation of fifteen million men, women and children. It is understood that this rally will coincide with the "grave moment in the history of Italy" and it is rumoured that it will be arranged as soon as to-morrow or Friday.—Reuter.

COMMUNIQUE ISSUED

Rome, Sept. 18.

The Cabinet, concluded at 1 p.m. and adjourned until Saturday. A communique issued does not contain any important statement. It says that the "modest tax" imposed on commercial road transport and war pensions will be stabilised by one fund. This will enable the Government to present the balanced estimates for 1936/37.

The communique adds that the "sacrifices which were too burdensome in the economic circumstances of the nation a year ago can to-day be asked in the present conditions of diminished unemployment, resumed industrial commercial activity and improvement in agriculture both in respect of abundant crops and level of prices."—Reuter.

SILVER MARKET

(From Our Own Correspondent)

London on New York cross-rate at 1 p.m. to-day was 4.9356 compared with 4.9362 at closing yesterday.

Spanish representative, Senor de Madariaga, has been at work all to-day at Geneva on the draft report of the Italo-Ethiopian dispute prepared by its experts during eleven days of intensive labour.

The Committee has practically completed its task and it is expected it will finish to-morrow morning. Geneva messages state Senor de Madariaga has been requested by his colleagues to submit the report to the Ethiopian and Italian delegations to-morrow afternoon.

Examination of the report by the parties to the dispute it is anticipated will take several days. The British delegation is understood to be satisfied with the progress of the Committee's work and that its proposals are in harmony with the spirit of the Covenant and do not infringe the political sovereignty of the Ethiopian Government. Hope is expressed at Geneva that a proposal will be found acceptable by both the Ethiopian and Italian Governments as a basis of settlement of differences, which has arisen between them.—British Wireless.

OFFER OF CESSION

Paris, Sept. 17.

A new parcelling out of territory with a view to satisfying Italy is under consideration by M. Pierre Laval, the French Prime Minister, according to the Geneva correspondent of "La Liberté."

The proposal, which is not confirmed, appears to provide an offer of cession of territory in French and British Somaliland to Ethiopia in exchange for Ogaden and Danakil provinces, which would then be handed to Signor Mussolini. Thus Signor Mussolini would get part of Ethiopia and the Ethiopians would get access to the sea.—Reuter.

"RESIST THE IMMINENT TRAGEDY"

Labour Leader's Appeal To Australia

Sydney, Sept. 18.

An appeal to the Australian people to resist what appears to be imminent tragedy" was issued by the Labour leader, Mr. Lang, who describes the League as an organisation dominated by Britain, France and Russia.

Mr. Lang declares that the only way to prevent Italy obtaining supplies was to sink her ships, which was an act of war. Italy would be weakened by a war and would see Germany annex Austria which would result in a terrible world war.

Mr. Lang adds that Australia should stand off so as to be able to protect her interests in the Pacific as other nations are doing.—Reuter.

NEW ZEALAND LOYALTY

Wellington, N.Z., Sept. 18.

Loyalty to the League in the present grave situation was stressed by the Prime Minister, Mr. G. W. Forbes, when a deputation from the New Zealand Methodist Church called on him to announce their opposition to war.

They stated that they refuse to participate in a war and would help to resist conscription. They declared they would not give the same unanimous response in the next war as they did in 1914.

Mr. Forbes in replying said that he had no thought many New Zealanders shared the same view. When a nation went mad and declared war something should be done to resist that nation. New Zealand would join the other League nations to prevent an attack being made. If the League went it would be most difficult to guarantee peace for any length of time.—Reuter.

EGYPT'S ATTITUDE IN CASE OF WAR

(Special to "Hong Kong Daily Press")

(By Telegraph, Copyright, Telegraphic Messages Ordinance, 1894. Received, September 18, 4.30 p.m.)

Cairo, September 18.

The standpoint of Ward, which is the Egyptian National Party in the event of hostilities between Italy and Abyssinia is that Egypt will preserve strictest neutrality unless the Italian troops cross her frontiers when she would then be compelled to take up arms in defence of her territory.

An important political speech by the leader of the Ward, in which this attitude will be formulated is announced for September 26. In the meantime the Suez Canal Zone is under the strictest supervision, the population being forbidden to approach certain sections.—Transocean Kuo Min.

is reported from Geneva in a message to "L'Intransigeant."

This paper says that everything therefore depends upon the British reply to the French questionnaire, which is awaited. The report adds that Italy will still require considerable satisfaction over Ethiopia, but is willing to negotiate.

Italy's anxiety over European problems is understood to concern particularly the Brenner frontier. She holds that a British undertaking would be sufficient guarantee to make African concessions worth while, and she also holds that if Britain hesitates to give the required undertaking France will be unable to offer full support for the defence of Italy's European frontiers.—Reuter.

ITALY UNMOVED

Rome, Sept. 17.

Reports of further European concessions, like the guarantee of the protection of the Brenner Pass, leave the Italians unmoved. The situation is now one of brooding calm before the storm.

All expectations are centred in to-morrow's resumed Cabinet meeting.—Reuter.

SURPRISE IN LONDON

London, Sept. 17.

Some surprise has been caused in London by statements emanating from Rome to the effect that an invitation addressed early this year to the British Government by the Italian Government, through its Ambassador, to discuss their reciprocal interests in Abyssinia was met with dilatory and evasive procedure.

The facts are that His Majesty's Government at once began a thorough examination of the question, but this necessitated consultation with a number of colonial administrations and was bound to require time. Meanwhile the dispute between Italy and Ethiopia took a more serious turn and considerations based on British obligations towards the League of Nations on the necessity of maintaining League authority and on the European situation generally became more urgent than those connected with the particular interests in Africa. This was made clear by Mr. Eden when he visited Signor Mussolini in Rome. If the British Government had been unable to proceed with a

SAFE CONDUCT FOR CONSUL

Refusal By Emperor Of Abyssinia

(Special to "Hong Kong Daily Press")

(By Telegraph, Copyright, Telegraphic Messages Ordinance, 1894. Received, September 18, 4.30 p.m.)

Addis Ababa, Sept. 18.

The Italian Legation's request to grant the Italian Consul at Gondar and his staff safe conduct for the journey to Eritrea has been refused by the Emperor of Abyssinia.

The refusal is due to the fact that during the journey through the province of Tigro, the Italians would have occasion to watch the Abyssinian military preparations. The Italians, however, have been informed that they may leave the country via Addis Ababa, which is a journey of about 14 days.—Transocean Kuo Min.

SPANISH MINISTER RESIGNS

(Special to "Hong Kong Daily Press")

(By Telegraph, Copyright, Telegraphic Messages Ordinance, 1894. Received, September 18, 4.30 p.m.)

Madrid, Sept. 18.

The Minister of Marine, Royo Villanova announced his resignation during the Cabinet Meeting on Tuesday afternoon. The ministers' resignation is due to the fact that he objects to certain concessions made to the Catalan Government, which he considers indicates weakness on the part of the Central Government.

The situation created by the Marine Minister's resignation will be discussed by the Cabinet Council on Wednesday, which may decide to reform the cabinet completely, since it has been planned for a long time to reduce the number of cabinet members for economic reasons.—Transocean Kuo Min.

MEETING OF MINISTERS

To Review Position

London, Sept. 17.

Mr. Stanley Baldwin, the Prime Minister, had a 90-minute meeting with Sir Bolton Eyres-Monsell, First Lord of the Admiralty, Lord Halifax, the Secretary for War, Sir Philip Cunliffe-Lister, Air Minister, Sir Samuel Hoare, Foreign Minister, and Mr. Walter Runciman, the President of the Board of Trade.

The Ministers met during the afternoon and later Mr. Baldwin returned to Chequers for the rest of the week, unless he is summoned back to London by some emergency arising.

Sir Samuel Hoare expects to go to Norfolk at once. It is expected that a full Cabinet meeting will be held next week at which the international situation will be thoroughly reviewed.—Reuter.

MANUEL QUEZON SUCCEEDS

Rival Serene In Defeat

Manila, Sept. 18.

There has been a landslide victory for Senor Quezon in the presidential election.

The city of Manila voted 25,454 for Quezon, 10,236 for Aguinaldo and 4,503 for Aglipay.

The returns from the provinces are as yet incomplete, but indicate a large majority for Quezon.

Senor Aguinaldo is serene in defeat. He said: "I have only done my duty to the people." His followers had said that his defeat cannot be possible.

Before retiring early this morning the President-elect, Senor Manuel Quezon, celebrated his victory with a chicken supper with his wife.

DUNCAN THE CHAMPION

His First Title

BY "JACK - HIGH"

Bowls which could have been classed as of a high standard was witnessed by a large crowd at the Kowloon Green yesterday when R. Duncan of the Kowloon Bowling Club claimed the title of the Open Singles Bowls Champion by defeating B. W. Bradbury, the C.C.C. skip in the final by 21 shots to 17 in 22 heads.

Throughout the game a high standard was maintained and the superiority of Duncan was never at doubt. It might be said that Bradbury had some "unlucky shots." The C.C.C. skip had a chance of pulling the game round but he was unable to avail himself of the opportunity presented to him at the crucial moment.

Duncan was playing as well as expected in fact the standard which he had shown on previous rounds was fully kept up and he would have beaten any other finalist on the day's play. His drawing was irresistible and time and again he had Bradbury well blocked.

BRADBURY SCORES

The game started with Bradbury claiming a three on the very first head. At the 6th head the score stood at 6 shots to 3 in favour of Bradbury but on the 7th head brilliant form was shown by Duncan when he scored a three to level matters. Bradbury was short on this head. The next two heads saw play very even, Duncan claiming a single on the 7th and Bradbury one on the 8th with the score at 7 shots all.

On the 10th head Duncan again came in with a single. Bradbury claimed a two on the 11th head to put the score 9 to 8 in his favour. On the 12th head Bradbury was lying two good woods near the jack. Duncan with his last wood trailed the jack to allow Bradbury only one shot.

The next head saw Duncan sending down some very consistent woods to notch a three. The 14th head may be described as the turning point in the game. It was a very difficult head with both players showing up well. Duncan scored a two to lead by 13 shots to 10. A single on the 15th allowed Bradbury to draw level at 13 all and it was at this stage that Duncan got stuck on three successive heads to allow Bradbury to score a single and a two to lead by 16 shots to 13.

FORM RETURNS

The 18th head saw Duncan returning to form. His first two woods rested dead on the jack. Bradbury tried the same but was unsuccessful and Duncan with his next two woods managed to obtain the possible—a four. A single on the 19th head saw Duncan leading by 19 shots to 16 and on the next head first one and then the other claimed the shot but Duncan's last wood drew the shot. Bradbury obtained one for the 1st head and on the 22nd Duncan

GOOD YEAR'S WORK

Kowloon Indians Meeting

The Eighth Annual General Meeting of the Kowloon Indian Tennis Club was held at the Club House on Sunday. The President, Mr. Mahan Singh, presided over a large gathering.

The Secretary reported the financial position of the Club as satisfactory and congratulated the Club's hockey team on winning the championship of the Mamak Hockey Tournament.

The President endorsed the Secretary's remarks and also congratulated the Hockey players who gained places in representative games played in the Colony.

On behalf of the Hockey team, the hockey representative thanked Mr. Mahan Singh for the excellent medals presented by him to the players.

came in with a single to make matters safe.

The game was really an interesting affair. Both players were in fine form and they sent down some very good words. Bradbury had a chance of carrying off the honour, he had Duncan stuck on three heads but at the crucial moment he failed and allowed Duncan to gather four shots.

Duncan has by virtue of his win yesterday claimed two of the Open Singles Bowls titles, as it will be remembered that he was in the pink that won the Championship.

MAMAK HOCKEY TOURNAMENT

Two Divisions To Be Run

The general meeting of the Mamak Hockey Tournament to elect an executive committee from teams participating in the forthcoming tournament was held at the Police Library, Police Headquarters, yesterday.

Captain G.W.P. Kimm A.C.E. was in the chair and was supported by the Hon. Secretary, Sub-Inspector L. Tyler. That the full support will be given to the coming tournament may be gauged by the large and representative gathering that was present.

A letter was read from the Inspector General of Police, thanking them for having elected him President, but regretted that owing to other duties he was unable to accept the position.

All the Vice-Presidents elected, namely, Major M. A. H. Campbell Lt.-Comdr. J. E. Broome, R.N. and Rev. J. R. Higgs accepted the offices.

TWO DIVISIONS

It was proposed by Lt. Hamilton that two divisions be run in the coming tournament. This was put to the vote and was carried as follows. "The tournament this year is to be run in two divisions, the executive committee to decide which clubs are to take part in each Division."

A point was brought up regarding the unfortunate shortage of grounds, but the Chairman said that arrangements could be made to get the loan of grounds.

Enteries for the coming tournament are very encouraging the following applications having been received:—

C.E.A., 12 Bat. R.A. Royal Corps of Signals, R.E. St. Andrew's Club, Radio, Kowloon Indian Tennis Club, Nomads, Argonauta, United, H.K. M.V. Corp. Police Europeans, Police Indians, University.

APPEALS BOARD

It was proposed that two representatives of the Civilian and two of the Army be elected to serve on the Executive Committee. The Civilian representatives chosen are Mr. A. E. P. Guest and Mr. R. C. Reed, and the Army representative are Gunner Aldridge and J. W. Dove. Lt. Young was elected as representative for the Navy.

Mr. Guest then proposed that a Special Appeals Board be formed, two from the Civilians and two from the H.K. Hockey Association. This would be a special Committee to deal with any infringements that may occur during the games. He was asked to formally send in his proposal in writing to the proper quarters.

LARGE OPIUM HAUL Leave To Appeal

The large opium haul made on the s.s. Peasantville had a sequel yesterday before Mr. W. M. Thomson at the Kowloon Magistrate's court when five Chinese Sing Fat, quartermaster, Li Yau, carpenter, Li Ping, nightwatchman, and Chau Ngau were convicted of charges of possession of opium on board the boat and with doing an act preparatory to exportation. The amount of value was stated to be 3,340 taels. The fourth and fifth defendants were represented by Mr. G. S. Hughes while Mr. E. W. Hamilton, Superintendent of Imports and Exports prosecuted.

The case was adjourned from September 12 to consider the defence's submission that the revenue officers having got the defendants in custody with the intention of charging them had no right to question them at all.

On resumption of the case yesterday, His Worship informed the defence that he had considered their submission, but was ruling against them.

ACCUSED'S STATEMENTS

Wan Pak Yu, interpreter of the Import and Export Office, stated that fourth and fifth accused made a statement in the presence of C.P.O. Butler. Fourth accused said, "I went on board the City of Peasantville at 3.30 a.m. and went to the stern and saw several men. I stayed on board for half an hour. My object was to see if any arrangements had been made to take the opium on board."

Fifth accused stated "I went on board the City of Peasantville between 9 p.m. and 10 p.m. and saw some men pull up something from the stern. I did not interfere; I went down the gangway to see what was the matter."

Cross-examined by Mr. Hughes-Jones, witness stated that both the defendants made no statement until they were questioned.

This concluded the case for the prosecution and Mr. Hughes-Jones, on behalf of fourth accused, submitted that there was no case to answer. The only direct evidence against accused was that he was seen at the bottom of the gangway and he was arrested. It was submitted that his standing at the bottom of the gangway was no evidence of possession. Although defendant admitted he went on board and saw something being pulled up at the stern, it was not evidence that he was in possession.

At this stage Mr. Hamilton stated that the prosecution was prepared to accept this and withdrew charge (a) against defendant.

NO EVIDENCE

Replying to the second charge, counsel submitted that there was no evidence of defendant doing an act at all. He was a watchman employed on the ship. It might be that when he saw the bags being pulled up, he went to see what was being done but did not interfere. A mere breach of duty did not constitute an act.

Mr. Hughes-Jones further submitted that fifth accused had no case to answer. The fact that defendant was standing on the bottom of the gangway was no more doing an act than sleeping in bed. In evidence, he had been seen to walk off, and that was no evidence to show that he did an act.

If there was any evidence at all, it was evidence of intention and not an act.

CASE TO ANSWER

Mr. Hamilton, in reply, stated that with regard to the watchman, he was fully prepared to admit that the evidence was purely circumstantial, but submitted that the evidence was sufficient to make a case for him to answer.

His Worship held that there was a case for each and all of the defendants to answer.

First accused elected to make a statement from the dock and said he went off duty at midnight and went to sleep. Continuing, he said, "I got up to obey a call of nature. I do not know who put the sacks of opium on board. I saw third defendant smoking there, and he asked me to take two doses. The Customs officers came up and arrested me."

Also electing to make a statement, second accused said, "At 4 a.m. I got up as I had to go on duty. I went to the middle of the ship and heard a shot. I

POLO

The K.O.Y.L.I. Cup

On the Polo ground, (Boundary Street) yesterday, the Royal Artillery gained an overwhelming victory over the Lincolns by 11 goals to nil, and therefore earned the right to meet the Royal Welch Fusiliers in the final of the K.O.Y.L.I. Cup.

The Artillery were the better team and taking the offensive from the start they scored four times in the first chukker, two by Metcalfe, one by Drennan and the other by Baker-Carr.

Adopting the same tactics in the second chukker they were further rewarded with another two, Metcalfe and Drennan being the scorers.

In the third chukker the Lincolns made a belated rally but Portman was playing too well. From an outside hit the R.A. got the ball and Baker-Carr increased their lead.

This was followed by another from the same player. In the fourth chukker, the R.A. further increased their lead, by scoring another three, all of them from the forwards.

The teams were:—
Royal Artillery: N. W. Metcalfe (1), D. H. N. Baker-Carr (2), Major J. S. Drennan (3), and G. B. Portman (Back).

Lincolns: J. E. T. Pim (1), A. Wall (2), G. C. Wilson (3), and Capt. R. G. Lawe (Back).

FUSILIERS WIN

In the following game the Royal Welch Fusiliers beat the Civilians by 5 goals to 2.

The Civilians drew first blood when Stanton scored. In the second chukker the Fusiliers settled down and out-played the Civilians to score twice, one by Rose-Pryce and the other by Parker-Jervis.

Bousfield scored a beautiful goal in the third chukker to level the score, but the Fusiliers were not to be denied and retallied with two, one from Lewis the other from Rose-Pryce who was the outstanding forward on the field.

In the fourth chukker, with the score at 4 goals to 2 in favour of the Fusiliers, the Civilians made a gallant attempt, but they were kept in check by Parker-Jervis who was playing a very creditable game at back. The last goal of the game was scored by Lewis just before the final whistle.

The teams were:—
Fusiliers: R. C. Rose-Pryce (1), J. R. Johnson (2), Capt. A. D. M. Lewis (3), and E. C. Parker-Jervis (Back).

Civilians: W. T. Stanton (1), J. K. Bousfield (2), B. E. Fielden (3), and D. L. Newbiggins (Back).

ARYAN-JEW UNIONS

(Special to the "Hong Kong Daily Press" (Copyright).)

Amsterdam Sept. 17. The law forbidding marriage between German Aryan subjects and Jews has already had repercussions in Holland, where on account of the Treaty of June 1902 it also applies to German nationals living here as far as Dutch subjects are concerned. The Registrar here on this account was compelled to refuse to celebrate a marriage between a Jew and an "Aryan" arranged to take place on Tuesday until permission has been obtained from competent German authorities.—Transocean Kuo Min.

was frightened and fell into a hold. The police came and found me there and I was arrested. I knew nothing about the opium."

Third accused stated, "I got up about 3.30 a.m. and two Cantonese asked me to carry two sacks. I did not know what was in the sacks. The Customs men then came up and I was arrested."

Fourth and fifth accused both elected not to make any statement. All defendants were convicted on both charges except fourth accused, against whom charge (a) was withdrawn. Fourth accused was accordingly discharged on charge (a), and was fined $1,000, with the alternative of four months, on the second. The other accused were each fined a total of $10,000, with the alternative of 24 months' hard labour.

Under section 105 of the Magistrates' Ordinance, Mr. Hughes-Jones applied for leave to appeal, on behalf of the last two accused. The application was granted.

RIFLE SHOOT

First Practice Yesterday

The first Spoon and Practice shoot of the Hong Kong Rifle Association was held yesterday afternoon at the Army Range, Kowloon there being a particularly good attendance. The results obtained were very satisfactory, for the conditions were anything but ideal.

The experience gained yesterday proved that any competitor who takes part in these weekly practices or competitions must provide himself with binoculars or a telescope. When it is remembered that the spotting disc at 200 yards is 1 square inch only, it will be realised that the human eye is quite incapable to discern this at that distance.

The conditions of the shoot were seven shots and one sighting shot at 200, 500 and 600 yards. The highest possible score was 105 points.

The leading scores were:—

FRENCH PEASANTS UP IN ARMS

(Special to the "Hong Kong Daily Press" (Copyright).)

Paris Sept. 17. Now that the ultimatum to the Government has expired without their demands having been granted, at least in the measures pressed, the agricultural organisations united in the Peasants' Party passed resolutions which are even more drastic than the official circles had feared.

All the members of the peasants' front are ordered to pay no more taxes for the present; and to restrict their purchases of industrial products to a minimum.

Further protective measures are said to be under consideration for October. In the resolution it is admitted that under pressure of the agricultural organisations the Government had attempted to regulate the price of agricultural produce, but this, it is declared, had turned out to be only an elections manoeuvre and the prices were still far below the cost of production.

Further increases in the prices are demanded and the prohibition of the importation of grain, meat, vegetable and wood are declared to be necessary in order to attain this end, as well as the reduction of the contingents for dairy and other produce.

The resolution concludes with an exceedingly sharp attack on the Government which is accused to be completely in the power of the financial and industrial magnates on the one hand and Socialists on the Transocean Kuo Min.

EFFORTS AT GENEVA

(Special to the "Hong Kong Daily Press" (Copyright).)

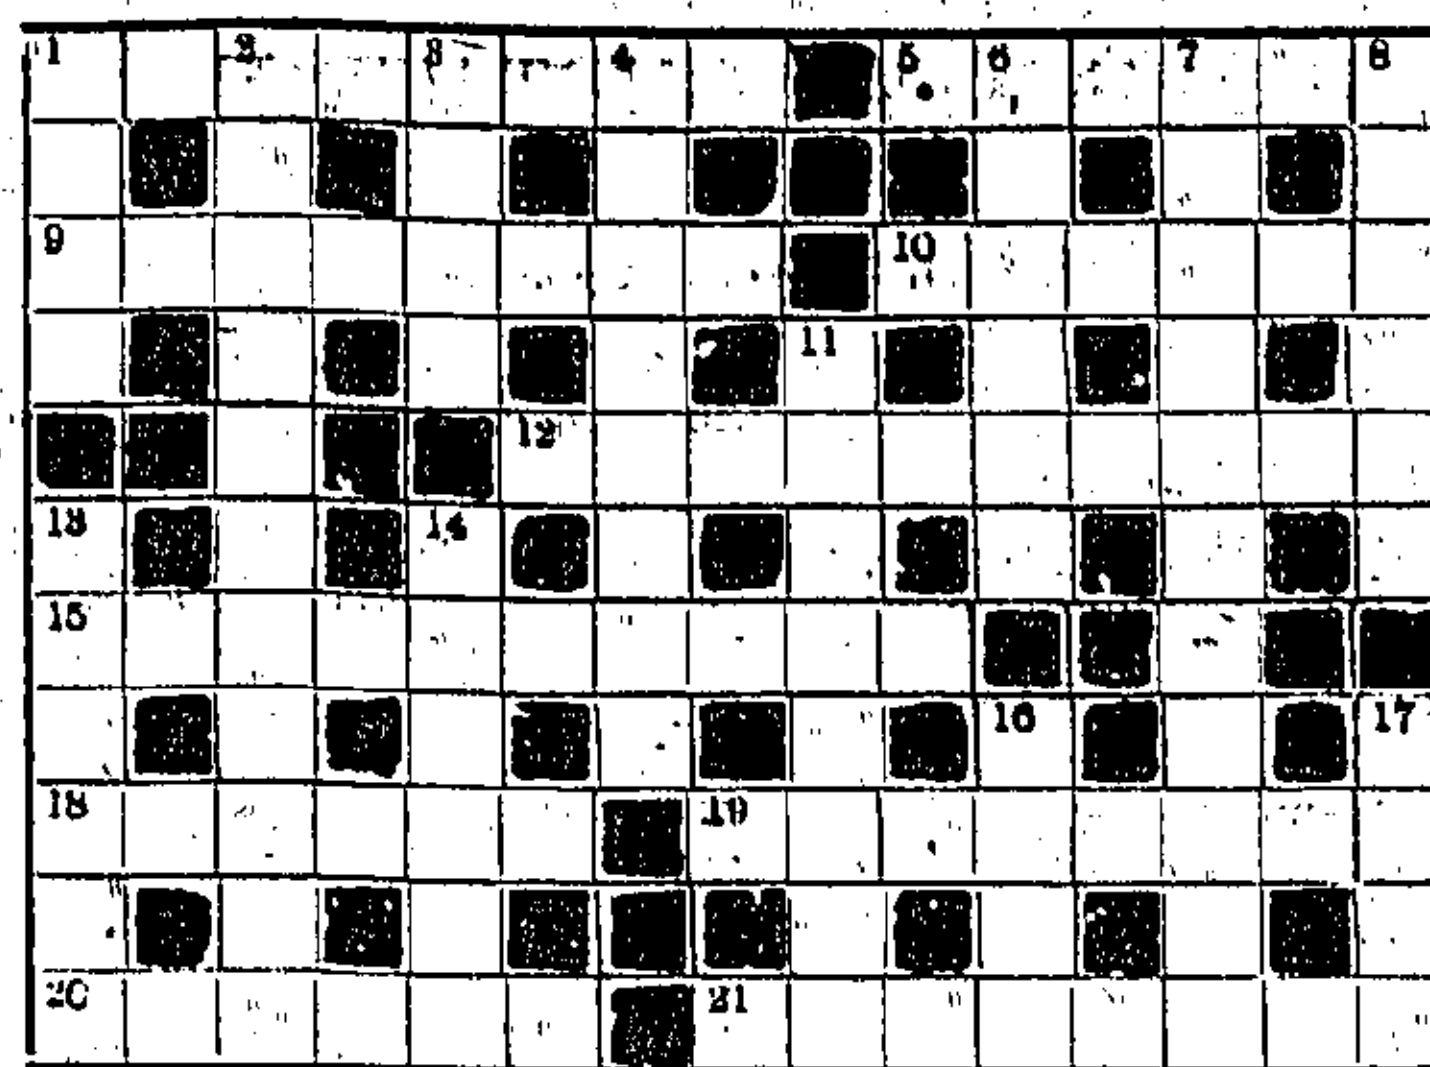

Geneva, Sept. 17. The Conciliation Committee of Five held a further session on Tuesday afternoon, at the conclusion of which the League Secretariat issued the following communiqué.

The Conciliation Committee continued its labour to-day in order to reach a peaceful solution to the Italo-Abyssinian dispute. A further session will be held on Wednesday morning in order to finally formulate suggestions which could serve as the basis for the negotiations.

The committee's report is already practically complete, it is learned from British circles, and will be handed to the representatives of the two countries concerned on Wednesday, so that it is possible that the Council will be able to deal with the report and the Italo-Abyssinian answers on Thursday.

After to-day's session the committee sounded several members of the League. It is stated in French quarters, as to their attitude towards the suggestion in the report: M. Litvinoff and the Danish representative it is understood, declared emphatically that they would refuse to agree to the proposals since it amounted to an attack on the sovereignty of another state.—Transocean Kuo Min.

BERLIN BOURSE

(Special to the "Hong Kong Daily Press" (Copyright).)

Berlin, Sept. 17.
The share market was fairly firm owing largely to the number of small repurchases arising apparently from the execution of buying orders held back pending clarification of the foreign political situation, and the Fuehrer's declaration on Sunday at the Nuremberg Party Congress.

The official news that the five hundred million ten-year treasury bonds have been a complete success and that the foreign trade figures for August are exceedingly satisfactory, also contributed to the improvement of the investors' outlook.

Fixed interest securities were mostly firmer above all the city loans. Call Money was at 3, Young Loan 102 1/2 (Monday unquoted). Reichs Banks weakened by 7/8 to 180 1/4. Dye Trusts rose 5/8 to 154 3/4. Salzdelfurth Potash was unchanged at 165. German Steel Trusts were a quarter firmer at 80 3/4. German Mineral Oils declined 1/2 to 108 3/4. Siemenshalske Improved 5/8 to 172 5/8. and Bemberg Royon were down 1/4 112.

GERMANY'S FOREIGN TRADE

(Special to the "Hong Kong Daily Press" (Copyright).)

Berlin, Sept. 17.
The gratifying figures of German foreign trade for July when exports exceeded imports by 75 million marks, followed by the still more satisfactory figures for August, were published on Tuesday showing the exports to be 50 million marks greater than imports, exports at 388 million marks being greatest and imports at 318 million least for any single month of the current year.

Exports for August 1935 were 368 as compared with 359 of July and 334 for August last year. Imports for August 1935 were 318 as against 331 of July—1935 and 343 million marks August 1934.

The surplus of August 1935 as compared with July 1935 is largely due to a decrease of imports in all three branches—namely, food, raw stuffs, manufactured goods, and above all textile, whereas the increase in exports chiefly arose through augmented sales of finished textiles to foreign countries.

PRICE OF WOOD OIL

(Special to the "Hong Kong Daily Press" (Copyright).)

Hankow, Sept. 10.
The wood oil market here has continued to advance to new high levels for the year due to the short covering for September shipments, in a market that is almost bare of stocks. Further impetus was given to the bullish movement by fears of an advance in exchange due to the unsettled situation in Europe and the continued holding back of supplies in Huanan which has been caused by the communist attacks in the vicinity of Changteh and Tsang-shih.

Business has been transacted here at $57.70 and in Changteh at $51. There is no market in Wanhien, Chungking, and Tsang-shih. The total amount of business done has been very small and dealers continue to be reluctant to sell. The stocks here do not exceed 150 tons, in Changteh possibly 100 and in Wanhien and Chungking not over 150 tons.

SINGAPORE RAW RUBBER

Latest Singapore Prices

H. B. JOSEPH & CO.
Messrs. H. B. Joseph & Co. received the following Straits Currency Quotations from Singapore for Raw Rubber—

	Buyers	Sellers
Spot	18 1/2 down	18 1/2
Oct./Dec.	18 1/2 Unch.	19
Jan./Mar.	19 1/2 Unch.	19 1/2
Apr./June	20 down	20 1/2

Market—Steadier.

Some 10,000 baskets are expected this month at Chengteh which may be supplemented by 50 or 100 tons from the Han River district.

Prices are nominal at the moment but are certain to decline somewhat if there is no further inquiry. There will not be much relief until the arrival of the new crop which should be on the market a little earlier this year due to the high prices on the Upper River.
